About Tom Hubschmid: I was born and raised on a ranch near Bowden, Alberta, just an hour's drive north of Calgary. Originally from the Evangelical Missionary Church, I converted to Anglicanism in my late twenties. In 2017, I moved to Toronto to begin graduate studies in theology at the University of Toronto, and I am now in the third year of a PhD. My research focuses on the relationship between Christian prayer and the search for truth.

On April 17, 2021 I married Tania, who is originally from the Niagara area in Ontario. We are living with Mryka Hall-Beyer this summer. I am delighted to minister among the community of Holy Cross, and honoured that this community will see me through my ordination to the diaconate. My passion in ministry is for people to experience the power of God to give life and heal wounds through the living mystery of Jesus Christ.

Ice Cream Sunday returns on the Day of Pentecost, June 5 following the 10:00 AM service.

Communion wafers are available for pick up from the mailbox for those who wish to partake of communion while watching the service at home.
