Refugee Committee Update – May 2017

News! The Alrahhah family has now moved to a new home on Reid Crescent. The house has a bigger backyard and a garden. Ahmad Senior is so excited to grow some vegetables! A generous family purchased the house to be a rental property, for the Alrahhahs to rent as long as they want to. Praise God for His provision! A BIG thank you to Earl Braun for renting the first house to SCAMA for over a year. We are so grateful for your generosity.

In employment news, the two oldest boys, Yousef and Ahmad, have jobs for the summer. They are excited to start but please pray that they will also understand the importance of going back to school in the fall. I'm sure it will be tempting to stay working but it will be so important for them to complete their Gr. 12 education.

Khadra, the mother of the family, is going to be selling kabobs at Market Square this summer. Help this wonderful family out by purchasing some tasty food on Saturdays, starting June 17th. My mouth is watering already! ;)

There are other fundraising events that you can be a part of to help support the SCAMA Refugee Fund.

We want to celebrate having our family here for close to a year! I will keep you updated as to a come-and-go celebration this summer.

I also want to thank everyone who donated towards the SCAMA Refugee Fund at the Good Friday service offering and/or the Sunrise Breakfast Easter Sunday. We were able to raise close to $2700.00 dollars! Also, MCC Sask. has also donated money towards our fund. God is so good at providing for all our needs!

Things to pray for:

1. Good attendance for the Paint Night and Scott Woods Concert.
2. Continuing prayer for Mahmoud's employment. Pray that Ahmad and Yousef to have a good and safe experience working this summer.
3. A successful Market Square experience for Khadra. (Does anyone know of an electric meat grinder that she can have or use?).

Thanks again to our supporters. The lives of our family have changed so dramatically because of your commitment and generosity. May the Lord be glorified in our efforts to serve Him in this way.
