Several Swift Current churches are working together to hold a conference on April 5 – 7, 2019 entitled "Who is My Neighbour? A Canadian Discussion." The conference will feature several Christian indigenous leaders from different denominations and across Canada. It will focus on learning to see our neighbors through Jesus' eyes. We are planning to have over 200 people come together for this weekend event that we hope will set the tone for the dialogue in our city, and be transformative in terms of our understanding and attitudes. The conference events will be held at several Swift Current churches throughout the weekend.

Many volunteers are needed to make this a successful event (transportation, registration, graphic design, social media communication, greeters, speaker assistants, etc.). You are invited to a vision casting, and volunteer engagement meeting on Tuesday, Nov 13th at 7:00 pm at the Salvation Army (780 1st Ave NW.) You can be a key part of making this a transformative event in our community.

Organizing Committee: Kevin Snyder (Chair- East Side), Chris Dowdeswell (St Stephen's), Joell Haugen (Community Baptist), Annette Taylor (First United), Ray Friesen (Grasslands Mediation) Plenary Session Host Churches: Trailview, Christ the Redeemer.
