

Music Library

Today we are honoring all those who have served faithfully in the Music Program. Ronald & Thelma Patteson served in the music library for many years. Raymond Branton also served in the First Baptist Church Music Library for about 40 years retiring in the late 70's. Dorothea and Regina Reimer were asked to take over and continued for another 29 years, with a total of 58 years combined, retiring about 2008.

The Reimer sisters were also the gown stewards and social convenors for many of those years. As a result the Music Library has been named "Reimer Music Library" in their honor and in recognition of all who have served there. Please join us in the Underwood Room after the morning service to celebrate.
