

CHRIST CHURCH CATHEDRAL

Vancouver, BC • Open Doors, Open Hearts, Open Minds

The Third
Sunday of Easter
APRIL 26, 2020

CATHEDRAL VISION | We envision a Cathedral which is radically inclusive, restlessly inquisitive, intentional, and inspired. This is a place that is called to lead and to serve, in communion and in community, with healing, reconciliation, and love, living out Christian mission. Together, we look to the power of Christ for the transformation of each person, this city, and the world. We recognize our history and traditions, while seeking renewal and growth. Curious and adaptable, this chorus has room for all voices. Whoever you are, wherever you come from, whomever you love, and regardless of what you may bring or are searching for, you are welcome here.

Presider

Alleluia! Christ is risen.

All

Christ is risen indeed. Alleluia!

Presider

May Christ's grace and peace be with you.

All

May our hearts be filled with joy. Alleluia!

Presider

We gather, in this holy time of Easter, to be strengthened by the God who forgives all our sins.

We acknowledge with respect that we worship on the traditional unceded territories of the Musqueam, Squamish and Tsleil-Waututh.

Let us pray that we may live more deeply into the calls to action from Canada's Truth and Reconciliation Commission.

All

May the Risen Christ lead us all on pathways of reconciliation and peace.

Collect

Presider

Let us pray (silence)

Risen Christ, companion on the way:
break through the disillusionment and despair which cloud our vision, so that we may find our way and journey on as messengers of your good news.

All

Amen.

The Nicene Creed
Presider	Let us confess our faith, as we say,
All	We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.
	We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one being with the Father. Through him all things were made.
	For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again in accordance with the scriptures;
he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father. With the Father and the Son he is worshipped and glorified. He has spoken through the prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Your financial gifts matter and together with the bread and wine they are presented in spirit at the Altar as a sign of thanksgiving to God from whom all blessings flow.

If you are participating in this worship from another church please give generously to your local parish.

The Great Thanksgiving

Presider The Lord be with you.
All And also with you.

Presider Lift up your hearts.
All We lift them to the Lord.

Presider Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
All It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Presider

Blessed are you, gracious God, creator of heaven and earth;
we give you thanks and praise for the glorious resurrection of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord; for he is the true paschal lamb who has taken away the sin of the world. By his death he destroyed death, and by his rising to life again he has won for us eternal life.
Therefore, joining our voices with the whole company of heaven, we sing our joyful hymn of praise to proclaim the glory of your name.

Sanctus

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

Presider

We give thanks to you, Lord our God, for the goodness and love you have made known to us in creation; in calling Israel to be your people; in your word spoken through the prophets;
and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus your Son.
For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Saviour and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, a death he freely accepted, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat:
this is my body which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: this is my blood of the new covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins.
Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

All

Therefore, Father, according to his command,
we remember his death,
we proclaim his resurrection,
we await his coming in glory;

Presider

and we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, Lord of all;
presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.

We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts, that they may be the sacrament of the body of Christ and his blood of the new covenant.

Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we, made acceptable in him, may be sanctified by the Holy Spirit.

In the fullness of time, reconcile all things in Christ, and make them new,
and bring us to that city of light where you dwell with all your sons and daughters;
through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation;
by whom, and with whom, and in whom, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all honour and glory are yours, almighty Father, now and for ever.

All

Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Presider

All

As our Saviour taught us, let us pray,
Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial, and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and forever. Amen.

Easter Acclamation

Now we are raised to new life.

Presider

All

We were buried in your tomb.
Now we share in your resurrection.

Presider

Presider

All

Alleluia. The gifts of God for the people of God.
Thanks be to God. Alleluia!

Share the Gifts

If you know the brokenness of life, its fractures within and its division without, then you have participated in the broken body of Christ and you are invited to share in Communion. Please place your hand over your heart and say, "Come Lord Jesus, come."

Prayer & Laying-on of Hands for Healing

Our usual practice of having prayer stations for those who wish to receive healing prayer is temporarily suspended at the request of the Archbishop. If you have a special intention for which you wish to receive prayers, please email your prayer request to reception@thecathedral.ca.

While the communion is being administered, we respectfully ask that you keep the silence — this is a time for quiet prayer and meditation.

Sending Out of the Disciples

Prayer after Communion

Presider

All your works praise you, O Lord.

All

And your faithful servants bless you.

Gracious God we thank you for feeding us with the body and blood of your Son Jesus Christ.
May we, who share his body, live his risen life;
we, who drink his cup, bring life to others;
we, whom the Spirit lights, give light to the world.
Keep us firm in the hope you have set before us,
so that we and all your children shall be free,
and the whole earth live to praise your name;
through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Blessing

Dismissal

Deacon

Alleluia! Alleluia!

Let us go in peace to love and serve the Risen Lord.

All

Thanks be to God. Alleluia! Alleluia!

Notes from Archbishop Melissa Skelton

APRIL 26, 2020

It's always a little shocking when a story from Scripture is your own story. That's how I feel about the Gospel reading for the second Sunday of Easter, John's story about the fearful disciples behind locked doors who were suddenly visited by the risen Christ. For here you and I are, fearful of many things in the face of this pandemic and in need of both reassurance and a new purpose. And here in the story, the risen Christ is able to pass over into the disciples' and our self-isolation and offer a word, a presence, and a purpose.

The word is peace. Jesus appears to disciples who are confused and fearful and gives them a word of peace. Peace that quiets and grounds. Peace that forgives and offers them a new start after what has surely been a jarring and jagged end to their expectations of the life that they had hoped to have. Likewise, the risen Christ breathes peace into our isolation and uncertainty, peace into our disrupted expectations.

The presence is one that still bears its wounds. The risen Christ has not let go of his wounds. He shows the disciples the tokens of his complete identification with their humanity. He offers Thomas the opportunity to touch those wounds. Likewise, the risen Christ is one with us in all that this pandemic brings us—the wounds of illness, the wounds of depression, the wounds of loneliness.

The purpose is to become disciples of the risen Christ. Jesus tells the disciples that “as the Father has sent me, so I send you.” And so, this is a story about sending as well—the disciples gaining new strength and trust in the risen Christ and being sent to bring the messages of peace and the love of God to the world. And so, it is with us. Even from the more circumscribed lives we are living, we are to bring peace and love to those with whom we interact.

And so, dear people of Christ Church Cathedral, I send you peace and encourage you to be the people of peace, the people of compassion and the people of love that you are!

In Christ

your Priest-in-Charge
