

CHRIST CHURCH CATHEDRAL

Vancouver, BC · Open Doors, Open Hearts, Open Minds

The Fifth
Sunday of Easter
MAY 10, 2020

CATHEDRAL VISION | We envision a Cathedral which is radically inclusive, restlessly inquisitive, intentional, and inspired. This is a place that is called to lead and to serve, in communion and in community, with healing, reconciliation, and love, living out Christian mission. Together, we look to the power of Christ for the transformation of each person, this city, and the world. We recognize our history and traditions, while seeking renewal and growth. Curious and adaptable, this chorus has room for all voices. Whoever you are, wherever you come from, whomever you love, and regardless of what you may bring or are searching for, you are welcome here.

WELCOME!

Thank you for joining the Cathedral community online for worship during the Fifth Sunday of Easter.

This service takes place on the traditional, ancestral, and unceded territory of the Musqueam, Squamish, and Tsleil-Waututh Nations in the heart of Vancouver.

If you have any questions about the Cathedral, its ministries or congregations, please visit our website at thecathedral.ca.

Presider

Alleluia! Christ is risen.

All

Christ is risen indeed. Alleluia!

Presider

May Christ's grace and peace be with you.

All

May our hearts be filled with joy. Alleluia!

Presider

We gather, in this holy time of Easter, to be strengthened by the God who forgives all our sins.

We acknowledge with respect that we worship on the traditional unceded territories of the Musqueam, Squamish and Tsleil-Waututh.

Let us pray that we may live more deeply into the calls to action from Canada's Truth and Reconciliation Commission.

All

May the Risen Christ lead us all on pathways of reconciliation and peace.

Collect

Presider

Let us pray (silence)

Risen Christ,
give us grace to love one another,
to search for truth
and to walk in the ways of justice and peace, so that we may abide in your love always.

All

Amen.

The Nicene Creed

Presider Let us confess our faith, as we say,
All We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one being with the Father.
 Through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven:
 by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
 he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again in accordance with the scriptures;
 he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
 He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
 and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father. With the Father and the Son he is worshipped and glorified. He has spoken through the prophets.
 We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
 We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
 We look for the resurrection of the dead,
 and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayers of the People

In the Anglican Cycle of Prayer we pray for the Anglican Church of Kenya. In the Diocesan Cycle of Prayer we pray for Melissa Skelton our Archbishop and Metropolitan; our companion diocese, the Episcopal Diocese of Northern Philippines and the Rt.

Rev. Brent Alawas; our companion parish, All Saints Cathedral, Bontac, Philippines and the Very Rev. Padi Luc; and St. Matthias & St. Luke (Vancouver). In our Parish we pray for the Altar Guild, Breadmakers, and Flower Coordinator.

The Peace

Please do bow with your hands folded across your heart and say, "Peace be with you" as a sign of this important greeting.

Celebration of the Eucharist

The Offertory

You are invited to make a financial offering to further God's mission through the work of the church by texting "Give" to 639.739.0843 and following the instructions; or by clicking on this link www.thecathedral.ca/donate. Tax receipts are issued annually for gifts totalling $20 or more. Your financial gifts matter and together with the bread and wine they are presented in spirit at the Altar as a sign of thanksgiving to God from whom all blessings flow.

If you are participating in this worship from another church please give generously to your local parish.

Prayer over the Gifts

Presider

Gracious God,

All

you show us your way
and give us your divine life.

May everything we do be directed by the knowledge of your truth.

We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ the risen Lord. Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving

Presider

The Lord be with you.

All

And also with you.

Presider

Lift up your hearts.

All

We lift them to the Lord.

Presider

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

All

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Presider

Blessed are you, gracious God, creator of heaven and earth; we give you thanks and praise for the glorious resurrection of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord; for he is the true paschal lamb who has taken away the sin of the world. By his death he destroyed death, and by his rising to life again he has won for us eternal life. Therefore, joining our voices with the whole company of heaven, we sing our joyful hymn of praise to proclaim the glory of your name.

Sanctus

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

Presider

We give thanks to you, Lord our God, for the goodness and love you have made known to us in creation; in calling Israel to be your people;
in your word spoken through the prophets;
and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus your Son.
For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Saviour and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, a death he freely accepted, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat:
this is my body which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: this is my blood of the new covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins.
Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

All

Therefore, Father, according to his command,
we remember his death,
we proclaim his resurrection,
we await his coming in glory;

Presider

and we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, Lord of all;
presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.

We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts, that they may be the sacrament of the body of Christ and his blood of the new covenant.

Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we, made acceptable in him, may be sanctified by the Holy Spirit.

In the fullness of time, reconcile all things in Christ, and make them new,
and bring us to that city of light where you dwell with all your sons and daughters;
through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation;
by whom, and with whom, and in whom, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all honour and glory are yours, almighty Father, now and for ever.

All

Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Presider

All

As our Saviour taught us, let us pray,
Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial, and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and forever. Amen.

Easter Acclamation

Presider

All

Lord, we died with you on the cross
Now we are raised to new life.

Presider

All

We were buried in your tomb.
Now we share in your resurrection.

Presider

All

Live in us, that we may live in you.
Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

Presider

All

These are the gifts of God for the people of God.
Thanks be to God. Alleluia!

Share the Gifts

If you know the brokenness of life, its fractures within and its division without, then you have participated in the broken body of Christ and you are invited to share in Communion. Please place your hand over your heart and say, "Come Lord Jesus, come."

Prayer & Laying-on of Hands for Healing

Our usual practice of having prayer stations for those who wish to receive healing prayer is temporarily suspended at the request of the Archbishop. If you have a special intention for which you wish to receive prayers, please email your prayer request to reception@thecathedral.ca.

While the communion is being administered, we respectfully ask that you keep the silence—this is a time for quiet prayer and meditation.

Sending Out of the Disciples

Prayer after Communion

Presider

All your works praise you, O Lord.

All

And your faithful servants bless you.

Gracious God we thank you for feeding us with the body and blood of your Son Jesus Christ.
May we, who share his body, live his risen life;
we, who drink his cup, bring life to others;
we, whom the Spirit lights, give light to the world.
Keep us firm in the hope you have set before us,
so that we and all your children shall be free,
and the whole earth live to praise your name;
through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Blessing

Dismissal

Deacon

Alleluia! Alleluia!

Let us go forth in the name of the risen Christ!

All

Thanks be to God. Alleluia! Alleluia!

Maundy Café Reopens

MAY 1, 2020

Christ Church Cathedral's Maundy Café relaunched on Wednesday, April 29 with take-away lunch service. Seeking to resume its practice of sharing food with those who are hungry in Vancouver's Downtown and West End neighbourhoods, the Café dished out homemade chili, juice, fruit, and granola bars packaged in paper bags with cutlery, ready to eat.

For the Cathedral, food is always about more than fuel for hungry bodies. Its food philosophy makes clear that for the Cathedral food cultivates connection, holistic health, and community resiliency. While this mission was put on hiatus for a time with the onset of Covid-19, dedicated volunteers and staff pushed to adapt and reopen the Café in order to continue to serve the community in this difficult time.

When volunteers arrived at 8:30am Wednesday morning, they were provided with an in-depth orientation to new safety procedures designed to keep Café guests, volunteers, and staff safe. These procedures were developed in consultation with Vancouver Coastal Health and the City of Vancouver to ensure compliance with guidelines provided by the local health authority.

As the day progressed, volunteers noticed that the needs of people in the neighbourhood had not disappeared. "There are still a lot of hungry people out there—so many who came to the Café five days a week," said Holly McMillan, a long-time Maundy volunteer. "Their needs didn't go away because of the pandemic. In fact, they are probably heightened."

That need was heightened because many food programs in the Downtown and West End have shut down, leaving many without access to food. The Greater Vancouver Food Bank has moved from neighbourhood hubs to regional sites, leaving many of the Cathedral's closest neighbours with more difficult access to food.

David McMillan describes an interaction from Wednesday morning that moved him deeply. "There was a chap that came and told me he hadn't eaten in three days. I got the chance to hand him lunch. Two portions, actually. And I thought—this is the business we should be in."

Food, however, is not the only need people in the neighbourhood experienced. For many guests on Wednesday, it was about more than the food. Mr. McMillan observed that many who came to pick up lunch also wanted to stop and to chat. To the McMillan's, it appeared as though there was something important about the church once again showing up with a loving human face (albeit behind a mask).

The Rev. Marnie Peterson is Pastor to St. Brigid's and to the Maundy Café. For the last three years, she has been a regular presence in the Park Room during mealtimes, offering pastoral care to those who have come to the Cathedral for food and connection. "Seeing some of our regulars was such a highlight," she said, "It was so great to see folks we're used to seeing every day and seeing that they are ok."

Deborah Gault, reflecting on her experience preparing food on Wednesday wrote in an email: “I am so grateful I was part of the team reopening our Maundy Café... There are so many things I have missed since we had to close. I have missed the team of volunteers who work so hard every week to make such sustaining meals through Alberto’s recipes and guidance. However, most of all I have missed our guests.”

On the first day of resuming service, the Café had 25 guests, a fraction of its usual numbers. The team had done outreach in advance to local churches, the local neighbourhood house, and others, to let people know about the Café’s return. The team expects to see the number of guests rise rapidly. Word of mouth has always been the Café’s best advertisement.

Reflecting on his experience of the day, Alberto Jaramillo described the joy of walking down West Georgia street towards the Vancouver Public Library. He stopped by London Drugs and Library Square seeing many people he recognized—and others he didn’t. It was an opportunity to ask people if they were looking for lunch that day, and to tell them where they could find food. That, says Alberto, is what excites him the most: “I love that the word is getting out. I’m excited to see people coming back, and I’m excited that the Café is coming back to fill the need that is out there.”

After March 18, when the Café shut down, Holly McMillan found herself frustrated. “I felt that the church should be out there, on the front lines, feeding the poor,” she said. Asked why, she responded, “I’m not someone who goes around saying ‘Jesus said,’ but... Jesus said.”

The Cathedral’s Maundy Café is now operating on Wednesdays from 11:30am to 12:30pm at 690 Burrard Street, Vancouver. The team is working hard to add other days in the coming weeks and is developing a basic food pantry to support others in need. If you would like to volunteer or donate to the Café you can contact Andrew Stephens-Rennie at andrew@thecathedral.ca or visit www.thecathedral.ca/donate.

CATHEDRAL CONNECTIONS

Morning Prayer via Zoom

Monday - Friday | 9:30am

Are you looking for a way to deepen your spiritual life? How about trying out Morning Prayer at the Cathedral? Every weekday morning at 9:30am the Cathedral holds Morning Prayer.

We will follow a very simple liturgy with a Psalm, a Reading, Prayers and Silence. This form of regular, daily prayer is used in several Christian churches. All are welcome to start the day in prayer with us. This is happening online via Zoom. Please contact André at andre@thecathedral.ca for more information and to join the Zoom session.

BTT | Bible, Tea & Toast via Zoom

Sunday Mornings | 9:30am - 10:20am

Are you between the ages of 18 and 39½? Do the Sunday readings leave you with questions and wonderings? Join the Rev. André Stephany for a bit of Bible, Tea and Toast before the 10:30am service. The session will involve reading and reflecting on one of the readings from the lectionary (mostly) as we enjoy our morning coffee or tea and breakfast. Please contact André at andre@thecathedral.ca for more information and to join the Zoom session.

Centering Prayer Via Zoom

Tuesday Evenings | 6:30pm - 7:30pm

Centering Prayer is a silent prayer practice aimed at settling one's attention upon the presence of Christ within. All are welcome to participate via Zoom on Tuesday evenings in this simple healing practice reaching back to the early years of Christian faith. Join us from 6:30pm-7:30pm. We pray in silence for 30 minutes and there is opportunity afterwards for group reflection. Please contact Luke Primus for more details at lukasprimus@gmail.com. (Zoom session at <https://zoom.us/j/870708945>, password required)

Children, Youth & Families Ministry

Wednesdays at 11am | Sundays at 2pm

School's out... for quite some time, but that doesn't mean we have to stop wondering. Join Anne Kessler on Sundays and Wednesdays for Godly Play. We'll be using Zoom so that we can continue to interact with each other and ask our questions. (Wednesday Zoom session at <https://zoom.us/j/940510605>, password required; Sunday Zoom session at <https://zoom.us/j/727572694>, password required)

For more details and to sign-up for the weekly Children, Youth & Families Ministry eNewsletter please send an email to Anne at youth@thecathedral.ca.

Wondering Wednesdays via Zoom

Wednesdays | 12 noon - 12:45pm

When big things happen in our lives and in the world, many people start asking big—and small—questions about life and faith. On Wednesdays, the Rev. Alisdair Smith hosts Wondering Wednesdays, a 45 minute, online session to help us all explore these questions. Alisdair will have guests who offer a reflection and there will be time for Q&A and lots of wondering out loud. Please contact Alisdair at alisdair@thecathedral.ca for more information and to join the Zoom session.

Farewell James

James Cheatley, Director of Building Services, tendered his resignation on the news that his wife, Heather, has accepted a position at Dalhousie University. They will be moving their family to Nova Scotia this summer.

James has given ten years of excellent care and service to the Cathedral. Congratulations, James and Heather, on this new opportunity, and we will miss you both.

James' last day with the Cathedral will be May 14. If you would like to send James your good wishes, his email address is:

buildingservices@thecathedral.ca

If you would like to contribute towards a purse for James, please go to thecathedral.ca/donate. In the "give to" field, click on the arrow and a screen will drop down. Click "Gift to James".

We will collect gifts up to May 17.

Normally this would be a cash only gift, but we are not in normal times. This gift would be non-receiptable. Thank You!

Supporting Cathedral Ministries

While in person gatherings are suspended, the Cathedral's ministry has not stopped. New ways continue to be developed to allow ministries to continue their work. Your support is just as vital now as ever before, and there are several easy ways to make a contribution.

If you normally support the Cathedral by leaving a donation in the collection plate, please consider signing up for automated giving if you are able. Sign up for automated giving at thecathedral.ca/donate or by calling Kathy Irwin, Director of Donor Relations and Human Resources at 604.682.3848, ext. 28.

You can also make a gift to support the ministries of Christ Church Cathedral on your smart phone! Just go to the App Store, choose the app "tithe.ly" — from the store, download, enter your information and voilà—you can connect directly to the Cathedral and make your gift in whatever amount you wish.

Prefer to give by text? You can do that too! Text the word "give" to 639.739.0843 (the Cathedral's tithe.ly text giving phone number) and follow the instructions on the screen.

Thank you for your support!

Notes from the Rev. Alisdair Smith

Hello from Heather Street! Like all of us, we're in isolation to one degree or another. Spending lots of time on Zoom and other platforms, grateful to have some work, knowing that so many are out of work. Grateful for health when others are sick, grateful for company when so many are lonely, grateful for courage (sometimes at least), when so many are afraid. And I am so grateful for the communities of Christ Church Cathedral! The communities of Morning and Evening Prayer, Bible Read Along, Wondering Wednesdays, Godly Play, and Men's Breakfast (to name only a few) that seem to be thriving in the midst of the pandemic. Not to mention the hundreds of people joining in over the course of the week on YouTube to watch and participate in their own way in the Sunday Eucharist.

At Wondering Wednesday this week, one of the questions we explored was: How is the pandemic effecting your belief in God? My own experience has been one of more clarity about God as relationship. The Trinity is the metaphor we use most often, and as with most metaphors we mistake them for the actual thing. The metaphor of the Trinity is about relationship, it is about community. And we too, as much as we are individual, autonomous beings, we are social, community beings. It is not one or the other, that is a much too binary way of thinking; we are both individuals like "Creator, Sustainer and Friend" or "Father, Son and Holy Spirit" and we are in relationship to and with each other. And one of the challenges of our time is being in a community when we need to stay at home.

I invite you then to consider that we are all part of the Body of Christ, we are vital, important individuals, and we thrive in community. Where is God in all of this? God is present each time you reach out to a friend, each time you connect with someone in our communities, each time you hold up the Maundy Café, or the ministries of the Cathedral in prayer. Know that you are held in the prayers of others, others wonder how you are, others are thrilled to see you on the screen.

And you're invited to an online meeting for the congregations of the Cathedral on Wednesday, May 13 at 5pm (Pacific Time). During the Parish Webinar—The Cathedral Today—we'll hear about what's going on, what plans we have and be in community with each other. Watch emails and the website for details on getting connected.

Remember, you are loved and in the words of Archbishop Desmond Tutu, "You are a VSP. You are a very special person. You are God's Viceroy on earth."

Members of Christ Church Cathedral

Do you live in the Vancouver area and are thinking about making the Cathedral your home parish? Becoming a registered member means that you have a vote at our Annual Vestry Meeting (usually held in February), and you will receive regular Cathedral communications (including Contact Magazine). You would also be invited to be part of a Liturgy of Inclusion and a newcomers luncheon.

To request a membership form, email Director of Parish Administration, Vincent Carey, at vincent@thecathedral.ca

Once the form is complete, please forward to Vincent's attention and he will ensure that you are officially added as a new member. Unfortunately, we are not able to automatically make someone a Parishioner, this is something which you must request, and you may only be a member of one Parish. We look forward to welcoming you soon!

• Cathedral Clergy, Staff & Leaders

Friends of Christ Church Cathedral

Who are we? The Friends of the Cathedral are supporters of Christ Church who are unable to regularly attend services in person. Many of us are visitors or belong to another parish. We receive a subscription to Contact Magazine.

What do we do? We foster enthusiasm for Christ Church Cathedral and assist in beautifying it in every sense through our financial support. Significant gifts from Friends have helped to restore and conserve the Cathedral's heritage building and to fund the compassionate care of Vancouver's homeless and hungry population.

Join us! You are invited to sponsor the Cathedral's mission and ministry with an annual donation.

Contact us! Please contact Kathy Irwin if you have any questions or would like to arrange to make a donation at kathy@thecathedral.ca or 604.682.3848.
