

Revelation Bible Study

Pr ologue

1 The revelation of Jesus Christ, which he gave him to show his servants what must soon take place. He made it known by sending his angel to his servant John, 2 who testifies to everything he saw—that is, the word of the Lord and the testimony of Jesus Christ. 3 Blessed is the one who reads the words of this prophecy, and blessed are those who hear and take to heart what is written in it, because the time is near.

Greetings and Doxology

4 John,
To the seven churches in the province of Asia:

... was speaking to me. And when I turned I saw seven golden lampstands, 13 and someone like a son of man, dressed in a robe reaching down to his feet and with a sash around his waist like blazing fire. 15 His feet were like bronze glowing in a furnace, and his voice was like the sound of rushing waters. 16 In his right hand he held seven stars, and out of his mouth came a sharp double-edged sword. His face was like the sun, shining in all its brilliance. 17 When I saw him, I fell at his feet as though dead. Then he laid his right hand on me and said: "Do not be afraid, I am the First and the Last. 18 The Spirit and the bride say, 'Come.' And those who hear, let them say, 'Come.' And those who are thirsty, let them come, and those who want, let them take the water without cost."

in your favor: You hate the Nicolaitans, which I also hate.
7 He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. To him who overcomes, I will give the right to eat from the tree of life, which is in the paradise of God.

To the Church in Smyrna
8 To the angel of the church in Smyrna write:

These are the words of the First and the Last, who has come to be again. 9 I know your afflictions, and I will visit you and will send the angel of my presence to testify to you in every synagogue where you hear, that you are not like the Jews and are not afraid of what men do. I am Satan. 10 I tell you, the devil will put you in prison to test you, and for persecution for ten days. Those who overcome will give you the crown of life, and I will not blot out their names. 11 He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. He who overcomes will not be harmed by the second death.
