NOTE:

- By s.13 of the Constitution of the Synod, amendments to the Constitution may be proposed only at the previous meeting of Synod or by giving at least six weeks' notice to the Secretary of Synod.
- By s.15(1) of Canon Two, amendments to canons may be proposed only at the previous meeting of Synod or by giving at least six weeks' notice to the Secretary of Synod.
- By s.8(3) of Canon Two, the Synod may not consider any motion that would result in a new expenditure unless the motion identifies a proposed source of funding, or is qualified as subject to available funding.
- By s.2(3) of Regulation 2-1, no motion may have a preamble but "Any motion presented to the Committee may be accompanied by an explanatory note setting forth the consideration leading to the proposal. This note will not form part of the motion".
