From ca - ver - nous ca - the - drals we turn, per - plexed, a - way, “You’ve heard the Ea - ster sto - ry— of cross, and tomb laid bare.
“Look out! You’ll find me ac - tive in all the world ab - road.
A few have gifts of hea - ling and some have food to share.

dis - turbed to find them em - pty on this your ho - ly day.
You’ve heard through ge - ner - a - tions the re - cord of my care.
You’ll see me near the sick - bed; you’ll find me on the road.
A few have spe - cial trai - ning that they can bring to bear.

We seek your cal - ming pre - sence to soothe our trou - bled fear.
You know me as an a - gent from God’s al - migh - ty throne.
With food and vi - tal ser - vice sup - por - ting ev - ery - one
We are Christ’s li - ving bo - dy; may ev - ery mem - ber strive

A qui - et voice in - quir - es “Why do you seek me here?”
Did you ex - pect to find me con - fined by wood and stone?”
I seek to serve my peo - ple as I have al - ways done.”
to show a world in tur - moil that God is still a - live.
