

Ministers @ Knox

- Thomas Wardrope, 1845 - 1869, Moderator of the Presbyterian Church in Canada in 1891.
- William MacLaren, 1870 - 1873 left to be Professor and Principal (1905 - 1909 of Knox College. Moderator Presbyterian Church in Canada 1884,
- Francis W. Farries, 1875 - 1893.
- James Ballantyne, 1894 - 1896, left to become a Professor at Knox College, Moderator Presbyterian Church in Canada in 1920,
- David M. Ramsay 1897 - 1913.
- Robert B. Whyte 1916 - 1923.
- E. Lloyd Morrow 1923 - 1926 left to become a Professor at Knox College
- Robert Johnston 1927 - 1947, Moderator Presbyterian Church in Canada, 1932 while minister of Knox Church.
- Colin Miller 1948 - 1955.
- H. Douglas Stewart, 1956 - 1972, left to become minister at St. Andrew's Church \(Toronto\).
- Malcolm McCuaig 1972 - 1985,
- Donald F. Collier 1986 - 1992,
- Stephen A. Hayes 1993 - 2004, called to minister at St. Andrew's Church \(Quebec City\)
- Douglas Kendall 2005 - 2009, called to minister at St. Andrew's Church (Stittsville)
- David J. Thom 2011 - 2013 returned to Scotland, from where he had been called

The current minister is the Rev. James Pot. Raised in Southern Ontario and educated at Redeemer University College (Ancaster, Ontario) and Calvin Theological Seminary (Grand Rapids, Michigan) he was ordained in 1992 in the Christian Reformed Church. After ministering in that denomination with two Alberta congregations and one in Ontario, he was accepted as a minister in the Presbyterian Church in Canada in 2013 and served as pulpit supply for both denominations in the Hamilton area before being called to Knox in 2015.