

God With Us

God in the Storm

Acts 27

The virgin will conceive and give birth to a son, and they will call him Immanuel”(which means “God with us”).
Matthew 1:23

POWER POINT

Never let the presence of a storm cause you to doubt the presence of God.

Listening to others instead of God

“But the centurion was more persuaded by the pilot and the captain of the ship than by what was being said by Paul.”

A painting depicting a large crowd of people, likely sailors or soldiers, gathered on a rocky, moss-covered shore. They are looking out towards the sea. In the foreground, a person is captured mid-jump, leaping from the rocks into the water. The scene is set against a backdrop of a turbulent sea with white-capped waves. The overall tone is dramatic and historical.

Following the Crowd

“Because the harbor was not suitable for wintering, the majority reached a decision to put out to sea from there...”

REDFLOWING ON PERSEMONSTANDE

Because the harbor was not suitable for wintering....” they did not consider it a good place to stay and –“When a moderate south wind came up, supposing that they had attained their purpose, they weighed anchor and began sailing along Crete, close inshore.” Acts 27:13

DRIFTING

“When the ship was caught in it and could not face the wind, we gave way to it and let ourselves be driven along.” Acts 27:15

DISCARDED NG

“The next day as we were being violently storm-tossed, they began to jettison the cargo; and on the third day they threw the ship's tackle overboard with their own hands.”

Acts 27:18-19 (NASB)

DESPAIRING

“Since neither sun nor stars appeared for many days, and no small storm was assailing us, from then on all hope of our being saved was gradually abandoned.” Acts 27:20 (NASB)
