PRELUDE

As you prepare yourself for Worship, we invite you to enjoy the music of the prelude and reflect quietly on the meditation.

MEDITATION "...Jesus did not advocate non-violence merely as a technique for outwitting the enemy, but as a just means of opposing the enemy in such a way as to hold open the possibility of the enemy's becoming just as well. Both sides must win. We are summoned to pray for our enemies' transformation, and to respond to ill-treatment with a love that not only is godly but also, I am convinced, can only be found in God." -- Walter Wink, Jesus and Nonviolence: A Third Way

INVITATION TO COMMUNION

One: We come to this table remembering that love often involves sacrifice, not usually of our lives, but primarily our egos.

All: We remember the way that Jesus walked – a holy path of confrontation, peace and forgiveness in the face of evil, powers and principalities.

One: At this table we remember that the power of love and forgiveness is the only power strong enough to overcome the grip of anger, and resentment, betrayals and violence.

All: As we drink in the meaning of Jesus' way of non-violence and self-sacrifice, may we walk the same paths of love and peace and grace that Jesus walked.
