Hymn – Standing on the Promises

Standing on the promises of Christ my King,
Through eternal ages let His praises ring,
Glory in the highest, I will shout and sing,
Standing on the promises of God.

Standing, standing,
Standing on the promises of God my Savior;
Standing, standing,
I'm standing on the promises of God.

Standing on the promises that cannot fail,
When the howling storms of doubt and fear assail,
By the living Word of God I shall prevail,
Standing on the promises of God.

Standing on the promises I now can see
Perfect, present cleansing in the blood for me;
Standing in the liberty where Christ makes free,
Standing on the promises of God.

Standing on the promises of Christ the Lord,
Bound to Him eternally by love's strong cord,
Overcoming daily with the Spirit's sword,
Standing on the promises of God.

Standing on the promises I cannot fall,
Listening every moment to the Spirit's call
Resting in my Savior as my all in all,
Standing on the promises of God.

Our Spiritual Meditation

Jesus paid fully for the penalty of our sins:

The Son of God, who had never sinned—and who was least deserving of death—died so we could have life. His heart stopped beating, He stopped breathing and His spirit left Him. First Peter 3:18 says: “For Christ also died for sins once and for all, the just for the unjust, so that He might bring us to God.”

Oh, he cried out in pain, physically and spiritually, cosmic pain, actually. The ultimate transaction was fully achieved, sealed in His own blood. Just as the year-old lamb was butchered at the Tabernacle on behalf of the family it represented, so Jesus Christ bled and died for each one here who trusts their life to Him. (Lev 12:6)

All those who came under His banner by faith in Him and in Him alone, were reconciled to God, had peace with God the Father. This was no ordinary man!

All who were at the foot of the cross saw something no one had ever seen before.

So unique was the act of His dying that they all stood in awe.

“My kingdom is not of this world.” All you are able to do is by permission of my Father in heaven.

All who were BENEATH HIM, those at the foot of the cross saw something never seen before.

So exceptional was the act of His dying that many criticized and jeered Him who died there, nailed up above them.

The faithful all stood in awe.

A Roman centurion said: “Truly this was the Son of God!” (Mt 27:54)

One of those crucified beside Him said: “...this Man has done nothing wrong.”

Another man said: “Certainly this was a righteous Man!”

While others jeered at Him, He prayed for them, saying:

“Father, forgive them for they do not know what they are doing.”
