

WPBC SCHOLARSHIP

Application Requirements

1. A completed online application (linked).
2. A reflective piece.
3. A letter of recommendation.

Application Deadline:
Sunday, June 2nd, 2019
at 11:59 p.m.

The Reflective Piece

Your reflective piece must address:

-) your passion for, or commitment to, serving others;
-) how you plan to continue/expand your involvement and/or express your commitment to/interest in serving within the WPBC community.

Guidelines

The reflective piece must take one of the following forms:

A Podcast or video: An original news documentary, animation, work of fiction, or other audio or video recording; 1.5-5 minutes in length.

A 150-word summary/artist's statement must accompany the work.

A performance art piece: An original song, spoken word piece, monologue, dance, or other work of performance art. An original video recording of the performance must be submitted.

A 150 word summary/artist's statement must accompany the work.

A Visual Art piece: An original drawing, painting, or photograph; illustration, sculpture, or other work of visual art. If the artwork is too large for transportation to WPBC, an original high resolution image file may be submitted in lieu of the piece.

A 150 word summary/artist's statement must accompany the work.

A Written piece: An original story, essay, poem, play, or other written piece; 350-500 words.

Submission Guidelines

Original podcast, video, and performance art recordings must be:

- posted to a personal (or public) YouTube, Soundcloud, or other content sharing site;
- linked in your 150-word artist's statement, which must be sent as a Word or Google document; and
- sent to scholarship@westonparkbaptist.org by the deadline.

Original visual arts pieces must be:

- transported to WPBC at a pre-arranged time, or if the piece is too large for transportation,
- linked as a high resolution image file in your 150-word artist's statement, which must be sent as a Word or Google document; and
- sent to scholarship@westonparkbaptist.org by the deadline.

Original written pieces must be:

- sent as a Word or Google document; and
- sent to scholarship@westonparkbaptist.org by the deadline.