

Rosemarie died peacefully September 1, 2009. It was a blessing for her family to be beside her during her final days at Vancouver General Hospital.

Rosemarie embraced life with a positive and caring attitude. Her energy for life, wisdom, humour and contagious smile will be forever missed. These attributes and countless others brought her many friends and relationships that she cherished greatly.

Rosemarie valued the importance of giving back to the community. She was dedicated to making a difference volunteering countless hours in both Calgary, Edmonton and Salt Spring raising funds for the Children's Hospitals and other charitable organizations.

Rosemarie's dedication to making a difference was not limited to volunteering but ever present within the family. We will forever cherish the memories of family times. Rosemarie always had a plan for fun and adventure. So often she would just "LIGHT UP", beaming with excitement, and we all knew what was coming

"HEY, YOU GUYS, I HAVE THIS WONDERFUL IDEA!"
