

Life Must Go On ...

One soul goes out through the gateway of death,
Another arrives and draws in its first breath.
One is brought forth to the light of day,
One spirit enters, and one slips away.
One heart stops working, another starts to beat;
One life beginning, another complete.
Some weep for joy at the wonder of birth,
While others shed tears on the unyielding earth.

Grief seems to freeze-up the springs of desire,
The dawn has no glory, the sunset no fire.
Stunned with bereavement, we hear no glad song,
And yet this is happening all the day long.
Life must go on, for God takes and God gives,
Our loved ones must go, but their memory lives.
Hearts may be broken, the dearest thing gone,
But Time stops for no one, and life must go on ...
