A Story About Roy Camponella

Roy Campanella was one of the first African Americans to play in the US Baseball major leagues. In a distinguished career he won the Brooklyn Dodgers Most Valued Player award many times, and in 1955 was in the team that won the World Series.

But in January 1958 his career was cut short after a car crash left him a quadriplegic. After he was injured he spent a lot of time in the Institute of Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation in New York City.

One day he stopped to read a gold plaque upon one of the walls, and for someone who had been blessed with such athletic gifts it resonated deeply within him:

I asked God for strength, that I might achieve.

I was made weak, that I might learn to humbly obey...

I asked for health that I might do great things.

I was given infirmity that might do better things...

I asked for riches that I might be happy,

I was given poverty that I might be wise...

I asked for power, that I might have the praise of others.

I was given weakness that I might feel the need of God...

I asked for all things, that I might enjoy life.

I was given life that I might enjoy all things...

I got nothing I asked for, but everything I had hoped for.

Almost despite myself, my unspoken prayers were answered.

I am, among men, most richly blessed!

Call to Worship Scripture

Acts 2:46-47

<sup>46</sup> And continuing daily with one mind in the temple, and breaking bread from house to house, they ate their food with gladness and simplicity of heart, <sup>47</sup> praising God and having favor with all the people. And the Lord added to the church daily those who were being saved.

Hey Parents of Little Ones!

Our nursery uses light up pagers. The nursery worker will give you a small pager to hold onto after you leave your little one in the nursery. If your pager lights up, then you will know that you are needed. These work great, so rest easy!

Realize & Respond with Gratitude

Go now and present yourselves to the priests for inspection of your disease. They went, and before they reached the priests, their skin disease was healed, leaving no trace of the disease that scarred them and separated them from the community. One of them, the instant he realized he had been healed, turned and ran back to Jesus, shouting praises to God. He prostrated himself facedown at Jesus' feet. Thank You! Thank You! Now this fellow happened to be, not a Jew, but a Samaritan. Luke 17:14-16, (The Voice)

Sometimes I fail to realize God's generous blessings and I move on my merry way without pausing to thank Him. I act like I am entitled—yet, I would say I ardently believe in the Lord's mercy and grace in my life. So, why do I take for granted what's good in my day to day activities and complain about what's bad? Sadly, I forget my former condition of separation from Christ because of my sin and unbelief, and how marvelous my current state of unity with Jesus is through my trust in His love and forgiveness. If I demand good things and stay frustrated over bad things, I embrace a self-centered faith, which is a weak and powerless faith. True unity in Christ quickly realizes His generous provision and pauses to worship and thank Him. Gratitude realizes and responds.

Encouragement may be the greatest gift
we give this Christmas.

Please make checks payable to Beulah Baptist Church and note that the donation is for the Christmas Jail Outreach. ## A Short Lesson on Gratitude

Written by Nick Ortner, thetappingsolution.com

A blind boy sat on the steps of a building with a hat by his feet. He held up a sign which read, "I am blind, please help."

There were only a few coins in the hat – spare change from folks as they hurried past.

A man was walking by. He took a few coins from his pocket and dropped them into the hat. He then took the sign, turned it around, and wrote some words. Then he put the sign back in the boy's hand so that everyone who walked by would see the new words.

Soon the hat began to fill up. A lot more people were giving money to the blind boy.

That afternoon, the man who had changed the sign returned to see how things were. The boy recognized his footsteps and asked, "Were you the one who changed my sign this morning? What did you write?"

The man said, "I only wrote the truth. I said what you said but in a different way." I wrote, "Today is a beautiful day, but I cannot see it."

Both signs spoke the truth. But the first sign simply said the boy was blind, while the second sign conveyed to everyone walking by how grateful they should be to see.

When your life seems full of troubles, it seems difficult to maintain an attitude of gratitude, doesn't it? All we see are our problems, like a blackened storm cloud casting a dark shadow over our lives. And the times when everything just seems to be going smoothly? We often take these precious moments for granted too, don't we? Caught up in the bliss, comfort, and familiarity of it all, we can simply forget to be thankful.

So what, then, is gratitude?

Simply put, gratitude is a habit. It's a way of looking at the world and all the good things in it with a feeling of appreciation, regardless of whether or not your current situation is to your liking.

Gratitude is a heart-centered approach to being at peace with yourself and with all you have. When you practice this feeling of gratitude, it attracts even MORE things into your life for which to be grateful
