

Gene and Judy Packwood

were both born in New Zealand, immigrated to Canada in 1974, have two grown married children and four grandchildren. Gene was ordained as an Anglican priest in 1991 after seminary studies in Saskatoon. Since ordination he and Judy served together for eight years at St Francis of Assisi, Airdrie, and fifteen years at St Barnabas, Medicine Hat, in the Diocese of Calgary before retiring in May 2014. Gene and Judy have both been active in Teens Encounter Christ, Cursillo and have long had an interest in revival, charismatic renewal and the work and gifts of the Holy Spirit.

Judy has led, trained and been a part of several parish prayer initiatives: an annual Lenten silent retreat, a Secret Sisters prayer program and Prayer Ministry teams.

Gene is currently chairman of the Anglican Renewal Ministries Canada Board of Directors, has been a part of the presenting teams for several Leadership Training Institutes, Schools of Renewal Ministry and has spoken at both renewal conferences and parish missions.
