Thanks to Haven, Madison & Mary Anne for sharing their talents this morning.

For the month of September we will be searching for Wisdom: Finding out what you should do and doing it.

- ◇ The children continue to contribute to the school breakfast program with their weekly offering. We encourage the children to bring an offering to donate to this worthwhile project.
- ◇ If you have children or grandchildren who participate in First Contact or Youth Groups, either regularly or as frequent guests, please register them on the church website.

Sunday Morning Youth

Volunteers: We encourage youth to strengthen their leadership by signing up to be Nursery Helpers or Helpers with First Contact. Youth in Grade 6 can help in the nursery, while those in Grade 7 and older can help in our youngest First Contact Group. If you are interested in being a Youth Helper, please sign up on the church website under Children & Youth Volunteer Opportunities. Those not scheduled to help on Sundays are encouraged to continue to participate in First Contact programs upstairs.

First Contact Parent Volunteers: We ask that each family with children in First Contact provide at least two Sundays of service each year – either as a teacher or as a helper. Please connect with Julia Sheffield to sign up for your Parent Helper Sunday.

BOOK BUZZ: Max Lucado's Anxious for Nothing: Finding Calm in a Chaotic World, the upcoming study and discussion series in October, reflects on the promises of Philippians 4:4-8, Paul's epistle containing an antidote to anxiety that will help you develop a mindset of resilience. Copies are available in our library.
