MARK 1:40 - 45

"SOMETIMES THE ANGER OF JESUS IS A BEAUTIFUL THING"

Family News

With great sadness, we announce that Ross Alton passed away last week. There will be a memorial service on Friday, November 8, at 1pm, at Lambrick Park Church. In lieu of flowers, Ross' family invite those that want to donate to Food for the Hungry in Ross' name.

PRAYER MATTERS

Today we pray for our project in the Sasiga Mid-Highlands in Ethiopia. We have been partnering with Food for the Hungry (FH) in Sasiga since 2005 and continue to work with community and church leaders to improve the lives and living conditions of the community members. FH reports that in addition to working directly on the project, the team have been diligent in reviewing their activities and ensuring that they meet the goals they have established. The results of their recent evaluations, particularly of the education project, will be important to the future design of the program. They ask us to join them in prayer for: peace and stability for the country, God's protection and grace for Sasiga project staff, and provision of funds for effective, successful program implementation.

We pray also for our missionary Jenn Taylor, who is in Iquique, Chile telling people about Jesus and working with Florece - a prenatal & family counselling centre. Chile is currently featured in world news as what began as peaceful protests of Chileans to gain government's ear on issues of legitimate social and economic equality have become increasingly violent. Jenn reported on Tuesday: 'Although we had less violence and fire lighting during the day, this evening has seen some big blazes, road blocks and 1000's of people out on the streets. Our new building has remained completely unharmed as of this afternoon, and we praise the Lord for that.' Please pray for safety for Jenn and her colleagues and all missions groups working in Chile, for wisdom and restraint on all sides, and for the security of the the newly opened Florece facility.

To keep current with Jenn & the situation in Chile, 'friend' her on Facebook - Jenn Taylor.
