

Small Group Guide: James 5

Ice Breaker Question

Read Text: James 5

As we tie off our sermon series on James, what has been your favorite teaching in the book?

Did anything stick out to you in chapter five, or during the weekend message?

What has been your experience with healing prayer?

Have you ever-witnessed God work in miraculous ways, or know someone who has?

Why do you think some Christians believe that the miraculous gifts have ceased?

There are many benefits to confessing our sins to one another. Can you name some of those benefits?

Why is confession so difficult for us than?

Spend some time praying for one another, especially if someone is dealing with an illness. This is a great moment and opportunity to be hearers of the word and not just doers
