

Home Group Questions: April 16, 2017

John 20:1-18

1. Why do you suppose Mary Magdalene was first to the tomb? Luke 8:2 might give you a clue.
2. Why is it that no one expected an empty tomb even if Jesus repeatedly told them He would rise on the third day?
3. Why did John not go into the tomb? But Peter did. What was significant about what they found?
4. What do you think the disciples think in verse 10? What is everyone thinking?
5. Verse 11. Why is Mary weeping? Isn't it strange that even though 2 angels ask her the question, it doesn't phase her. Why not? How does everyone's reaction lend credibility to the resurrection?
6. Why does Mary not recognize Jesus? Again, how does this help verify the resurrection account?
7. What causes Mary to recognize Him?
8. Why did Jesus not want Mary to cling to Him? What does Jesus mean by his explanation?

Home Group Questions: April 16, 2017

John 20:1-18

1. Why do you suppose Mary Magdalene was first to the tomb? Luke 8:2 might give you a clue.
2. Why is it that no one expected an empty tomb even if Jesus repeatedly told them He would rise on the third day?
3. Why did John not go into the tomb? But Peter did. What was significant about what they found?
4. What do you think the disciples think in verse 10? What is everyone thinking?
5. Verse 11. Why is Mary weeping? Isn't it strange that even though 2 angels ask her the question, it doesn't phase her. Why not? How does everyone's reaction lend credibility to the resurrection?
6. Why does Mary not recognize Jesus? Again, how does this help verify the resurrection account?
7. What causes Mary to recognize Him?
8. Why did Jesus not want Mary to cling to Him? What does Jesus mean by his explanation?