Dr. Gordon Hamilton, BA (Brown), MTS, MA, PhD (Harvard) is Professor Emeritus, Old Testament Language and Literature at Huron University, London, Ontario, having taught biblical Hebrew and Old Testament studies there for over twenty years. His areas of research and teaching also include the origins of the west Semitic alphabet and the Dead Sea Scrolls.

An active Roman Catholic lay person, Gord has led numerous parish retreats and has a passion for Jewish-Muslim-Christian dialogue and ecumenical relations. He is an exceptional teacher and has a gift for providing context that helps draw the connections between the narratives of the Bible and our own stories as people of faith.
