

Intercessions for Sunday Nov 8/20

Let us come before Almighty God with humility. And instead of looking in fear at how big the world's problems are, let us choose instead to trust in how huge God's greatness, love and power truly are. For that is our truth. Following each prayer I will say, " Lord, in Your mercy," And your response is, "Hear our prayer."

Lord Jesus,
the truth is that You ARE our Prince of Peace. For You have given us this peace that starts way down in our hearts, in our souls. When we gather in our little church, or when we meet with You, Lord, during a quiet moment of prayer at home, or when we take a random second to breathe You in, Lord, Your peace flows into us, and it's real, and our souls are filled.
The world is a place of chaos now, Lord, where there is no peace. Not in hearts, not in minds, not between peoples or within nations. Everyone needs Your peace, O Lord.
Lord, in Your mercy
R- Hear our prayer.

Jesus, our Great Physician,
our truth is that You are our Holy family doctor. You know every hair on our head, each finger nail, every cell. You know what is in our mind, and heart. And our true health, body and soul, comes from You, Lord. Your Holy Light and Love touch us, transform, and heal us....
Lord, the whole world is filled with Covid 19 and it is affecting us all and killing so many.
Today we pray especially for.....Lorraine, Rick, Cameron, Elaine, Wayne, John, Alan, Dee, Sabrina. And any others you wish to pray for in silence or aloud.
Heal us, O Lord.
Lord in Your mercy
R-Hear our prayer.

We remember those who have died and those who grieve their loss. We give thanks for the life of Deb Eden's mother, Millie, and pray for Deb and her family during this difficult time. We give thanks for the life of Emy. Rest eternal grant unto them O Lord, and let light perpetual shine upon them.
Lord in your mercy,
R-Hear our prayer

Lord God,

You are our Saviour. You are our Rock. You are changeless and timeless. We can count on You, Lord. And amazingly, You walk with us through whatever may come. As Psalm 46 says, You O "God , are our refuge and strength, always ready to help in times of trouble." That is our truth.

Lord, when the world changes and we become scared, when anxiety fills us with dread, when the darkness of depression surrounds us,

Help us to see YOU, O Lord. Your strength. Your hugeness. Help us to see that You, Lord, ARE our Hope. Grow our tiny mustard seed of faith, Lord, that we may trust in YOU, more and more.

Lord in Your mercy

R- Hear our prayer.

Amen.
