

1

God in the Earthquake shake away injustice and pain from the world jostle into us the awe and awakening we need to serve you

God in the Angel

astonish us with your glory inspire us with your strength

God in the Guards show us how to surrender urge us to facilitate your work rather than impede it

2

God in the Dawn

begin a new day in each of us spark curiosity in us regarding the mystery of what is to come

God in the Stone show us that you are always moving in our world give us hope that nothing will stand in your way

God in Mary Magdalene draw us to you even when we are distraught and lacking hope help us face the unknown with grace

3

God in the Path give us the energy to run toward you inspire us with a sense of urgency to meet you again

God in the Empty Tomb transform the darkest places into vessels where new life can emerge give us courage to venture inside when we are unsure what we will find

God in the Linen and Cloth let us remember our own binds from which we have broken free remind us that no prison is forever
