James 2:14-26 – Faith that Saves

- Faith without deeds is no good (Jam 2:14-16).
  - Faith without deeds cannot save; it is dead (Jam 2:14, 17).
  - But doesn't the Bible tell us that faith alone saves us (Gal 2:16).
    - James is not contradicting Paul; he is just showing the other half of the equation.
    - We are saved by faith alone, but faith without works cannot save us because it is by our works that we know our faith is alive and genuine (Mat 7:16–20).
      - Only faith that reveals itself in action can actually save you.
    - Even demons believe in God and fear His power (Jam 2:19).
  - So then how can we ever truly know if we are saved? Well that is something that we perhaps can never know for certain but a good place to start is the test of Abraham (Jam 2:20-24).
    - Ask yourself, "What is my Isaac?" then see if you would be willing to put your faith into action by sacrificing that thing for God.
    - There is something that makes this kind of sacrifice possible: if you realize that God first made this sacrifice for us.
