2. There are two types of Christians (a) those on milk “unskilled in the word” (v 13) and (b) those on solid food (mature) with “powers of discernment trained by constant practice” (v 14). Which are you? Why do you say so?

3. There is an encouragement to “go on to maturity” and beyond the “elementary” foundational doctrines (v 1-2). Do you know them?
 - a) What do you think of his suggestion that maturity requires more than knowing these things?

4. The author between land that produces a “useful crop” (v 7) and that which bears “thorns and thistles” (v 8). What does he mean?

5. Do you have the “earnestness to have the full assurance of hope” (v 11)? Discuss.

6. What does it mean to be “imitators” of “faith and patience” so that we “inherit the promises” (v 12)?

Pray for each other, the church and the world.
