Hi Everyone,

I hope that you and your families are doing well. It is amazing to see how much daily life has changed in such a short time. I want to thank you for your continued prayer and support for The Vault Youth Center. Even though we temporarily closed our facility on Belvidere Avenue in mid-March and currently do not know when The Vault will be able to reopen, I have been encouraged by a popular worship song entitled While I'm Waiting, which says "I will serve you while I'm waiting, I will worship while I'm waiting on You, Lord."

Each week we are finding new and creative ways to show God's Love to the teens of this area during this uncertain time. We are meeting weekly for Zoom Video Chats and have group chats on Snapchat. We have setup a YouTube channel where I post encouraging messages, Bible challenges, and Bible studies. (Search for The Vault Youth Center on YouTube.) We are working on a free library box project to possibly distribute bottled water, Bibles, and other items without person to person contact. (Tentative)

It is no secret how important The Vault Youth Center is to me. Even before I was appointed director, I spent many afternoons helping to create a positive atmosphere within our carpeted walls. Yet, The Vault is not what is actually important. When asked what the two most important commandments were Jesus responded, "Love the Lord God with all your heart, soul, mind, and strength, and love your neighbor as yourself." What is important is showing the Love of Christ to the teens that join us each day; showing that they are loved by God and by us.

The Vault Youth Center is the tool we use to do this, and during this tough season, this ministry tool may be put away for now, but like any good tool, The Vault must be maintained. We need your prayers and support in order to successfully open and continue our mission as soon as it is safe to do so. I am so thankful for all of you and ask that you would prayerfully consider an offering to help us continue to be able to show the love of God to our neighbors through The Vault Youth Center. I am looking forward to what God will do through us all in the future.

Blessings,
