WALK

And now, dear brothers and sisters, we want you to know what will happen to the believers who have died so you will not grieve like people who have no hope.

1 Thessalonians 4:13

WALK

Now a man named Lazarus was sick. He was from Bethany, the village of Mary and her sister, Martha. This Mary, whose brother Lazarus now lay sick, was the same one who poured perfume on the Lord and wiped his feet with her hair. So the sisters sent word to Jesus, Lord, the one you love is sick.

John 11:1-3

WALK

When he heard this, Jesus said, "This sickness will not end in death. No, it is for God's glory so that God's Son may be glorified through it."

John 11:4

WALK

Now Jesus loved Martha and her sister and Lazarus. So when he heard that Lazarus was sick, he stayed where he was two more days.

John 11:5-6

WALK

...he went on to tell them, "Our friend Lazarus has fallen asleep; but I am going there to wake him up." His disciples replied, "Lord, if he sleeps, he will get better."

John 11:11-12

WALK

To be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord.

2 Corinthians 5:8

WALK

For then the dust will return to the earth, and the spirit will return to God who gave it.

Ecclesiastes 12:7

A red knitted sweater is shown from the chest up. The word "WALK" is printed in a bold, red, sans-serif font across the chest area. The sweater has a ribbed texture and a white stripe across the chest where the text is located.

WALK

Jesus had been speaking of his death, but his disciples thought he meant natural sleep. So then he told them plainly, "Lazarus is dead" and for your sake I am glad I was not there, so that you may believe. But let us go to him.

John 11:13-15

WALK

On his arrival, Jesus found that Lazarus had already been in the tomb for four days. Bethany was less than two miles from Jerusalem, and many Jews had come to Martha and Mary to comfort them in the loss of their brother.

John 11:17-19

WALK

"Lord," Martha said to Jesus, "if you had been here, my brother would not have died.

John 11:21

The background of the slide features a red and white striped pattern, reminiscent of a flag. A thick red rope is tied in a knot, with the knot positioned behind the main text. The word "WALK" is printed in a bold, red, sans-serif font at the top center of the image.

WALK

“Your brother will rise again.”
Martha answered, “I know he will rise again in the resurrection at the last day.”

John 11:23-24

WALK

I am the resurrection and the life. He who believes in me will live, even though he dies; and whoever lives and believes in me will never die. Do you believe this?

John 11:25-26

WALK

“Yes, Lord,” she replied, “I believe that you are the Messiah, the Son of God, who is to come into the world.”

John 11:27

WALK

Now Jesus had not yet entered the village, but was still at the place where Martha had met him. When Mary reached the place where Jesus was and saw him, she fell at his feet and said,

WALK

“Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died.”

John 11:30, 32

WALK

When Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews who had come along with her also weeping, he was deeply moved in spirit and troubled. "Where have you laid him?" he asked. "Come and see, Lord," they replied. Jesus wept.

John 11:33-35

A red and white striped rope is the background of the slide. The word "WALK" is printed in bold, red, uppercase letters on a white section of the rope.

WALK

Jesus, once more deeply moved, came to the tomb. It was a cave with a stone laid across the entrance.

John 11:38

WALK

"Take away the stone," he said.
"But, Lord," said Martha, the sister of the dead man, "by this time there is a bad odor, for he has been there four days.

John 11:39

WALK

So they took away the stone.
Then Jesus looked up and said,
"Father, I thank you that you have heard me. I knew that you always hear me, but I said this for the benefit of the people standing here, that they may

WALK

believe that you sent me."
When he had said this, Jesus called in a loud voice, Lazarus, come out.

John 11:41-43

WALK

The dead man came out, his hands and feet wrapped with strips of linen, and a cloth around his face.

John 11:44

WALK

I am the resurrection and the life. He who believes in me will live, even though he dies; and whoever lives and believes in me will never die. Do you believe this?

John 11:25

WALK

I am the resurrection and the life. He who believes in me will live, even though he dies; and whoever lives and believes in me will never die. Do you believe this?

John 11:25

WALK

In my Father's house are many rooms; if it were not so, I would have told you. I am going there to prepare a place for you.

John 14:2

rooms...

John 14:2

WALK

Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth, for the old heaven and the old earth had disappeared. And the sea was also gone. And I saw the Holy City, the new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven
