

Family Reunion

Incognito

“Pit Stops In Life”

Joseph will experience a divinely appointed déjà vu. The dust of 20 plus years of memories will be blown away in an instant.

“God does not pay at the end of the day, but at the end, He pays” (Anonymous 16th Century Saint).

Unplanned Reunion

“This reunion brought Joseph and his brothers together for the first time in over 20 years. Joseph was no longer a lowly slave but a lofty statesman. The ten older brothers were no longer arrogant, hateful, or powerful. Rather than persecute Joseph, they will prostrate themselves before him.”

God's SOVEREIGNTY

“We live in a world where our relationships with people become intertwined with God’s plan for us. No one lives his life in a vacuum”
(Erwin Lutzer).

“Praise God for the hammer, the file, and the furnace. The hammer molds us, the file sharpens us, and the fire tempers us”
(Samuel Rutherford).
