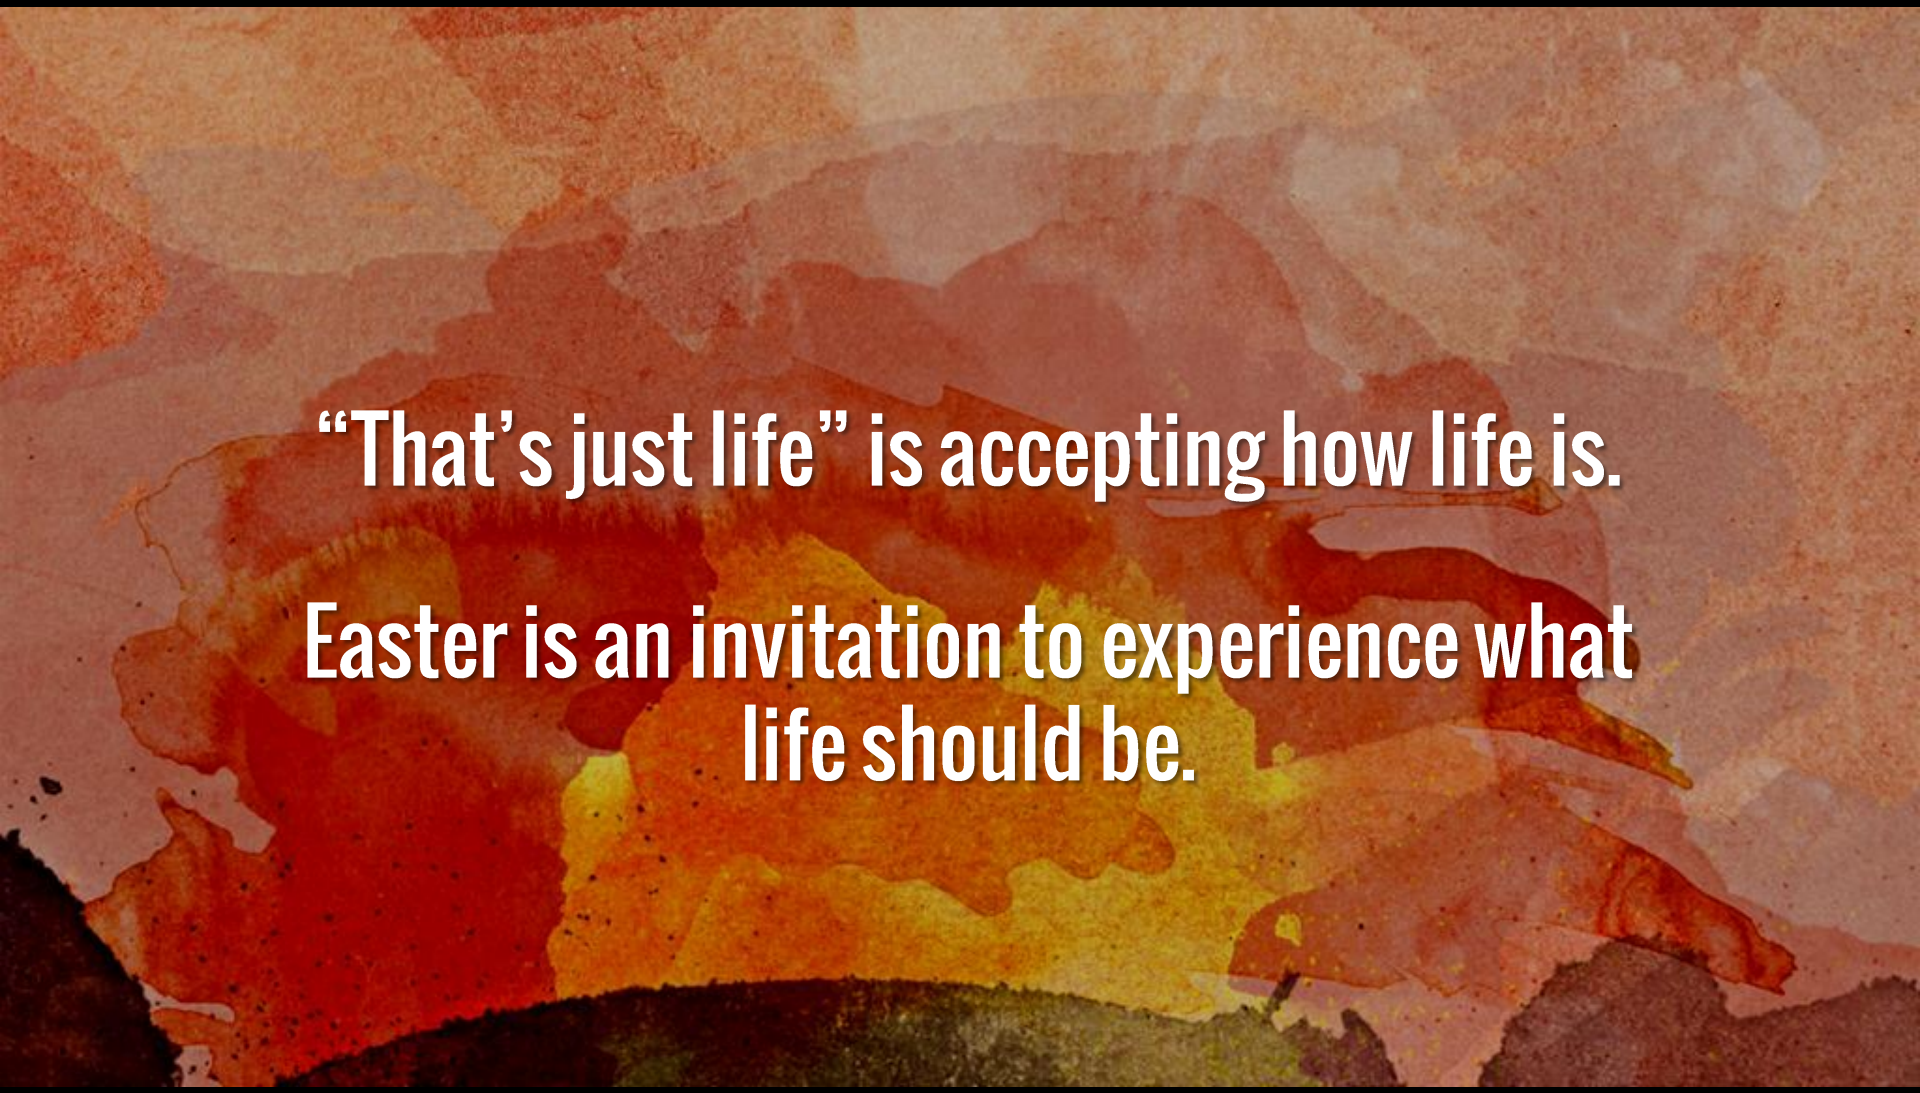
Easter

“That’s just life” is an excuse to get used to the status quo. It is an attempt for us to accept:

1. Our circumstances
2. Our identity

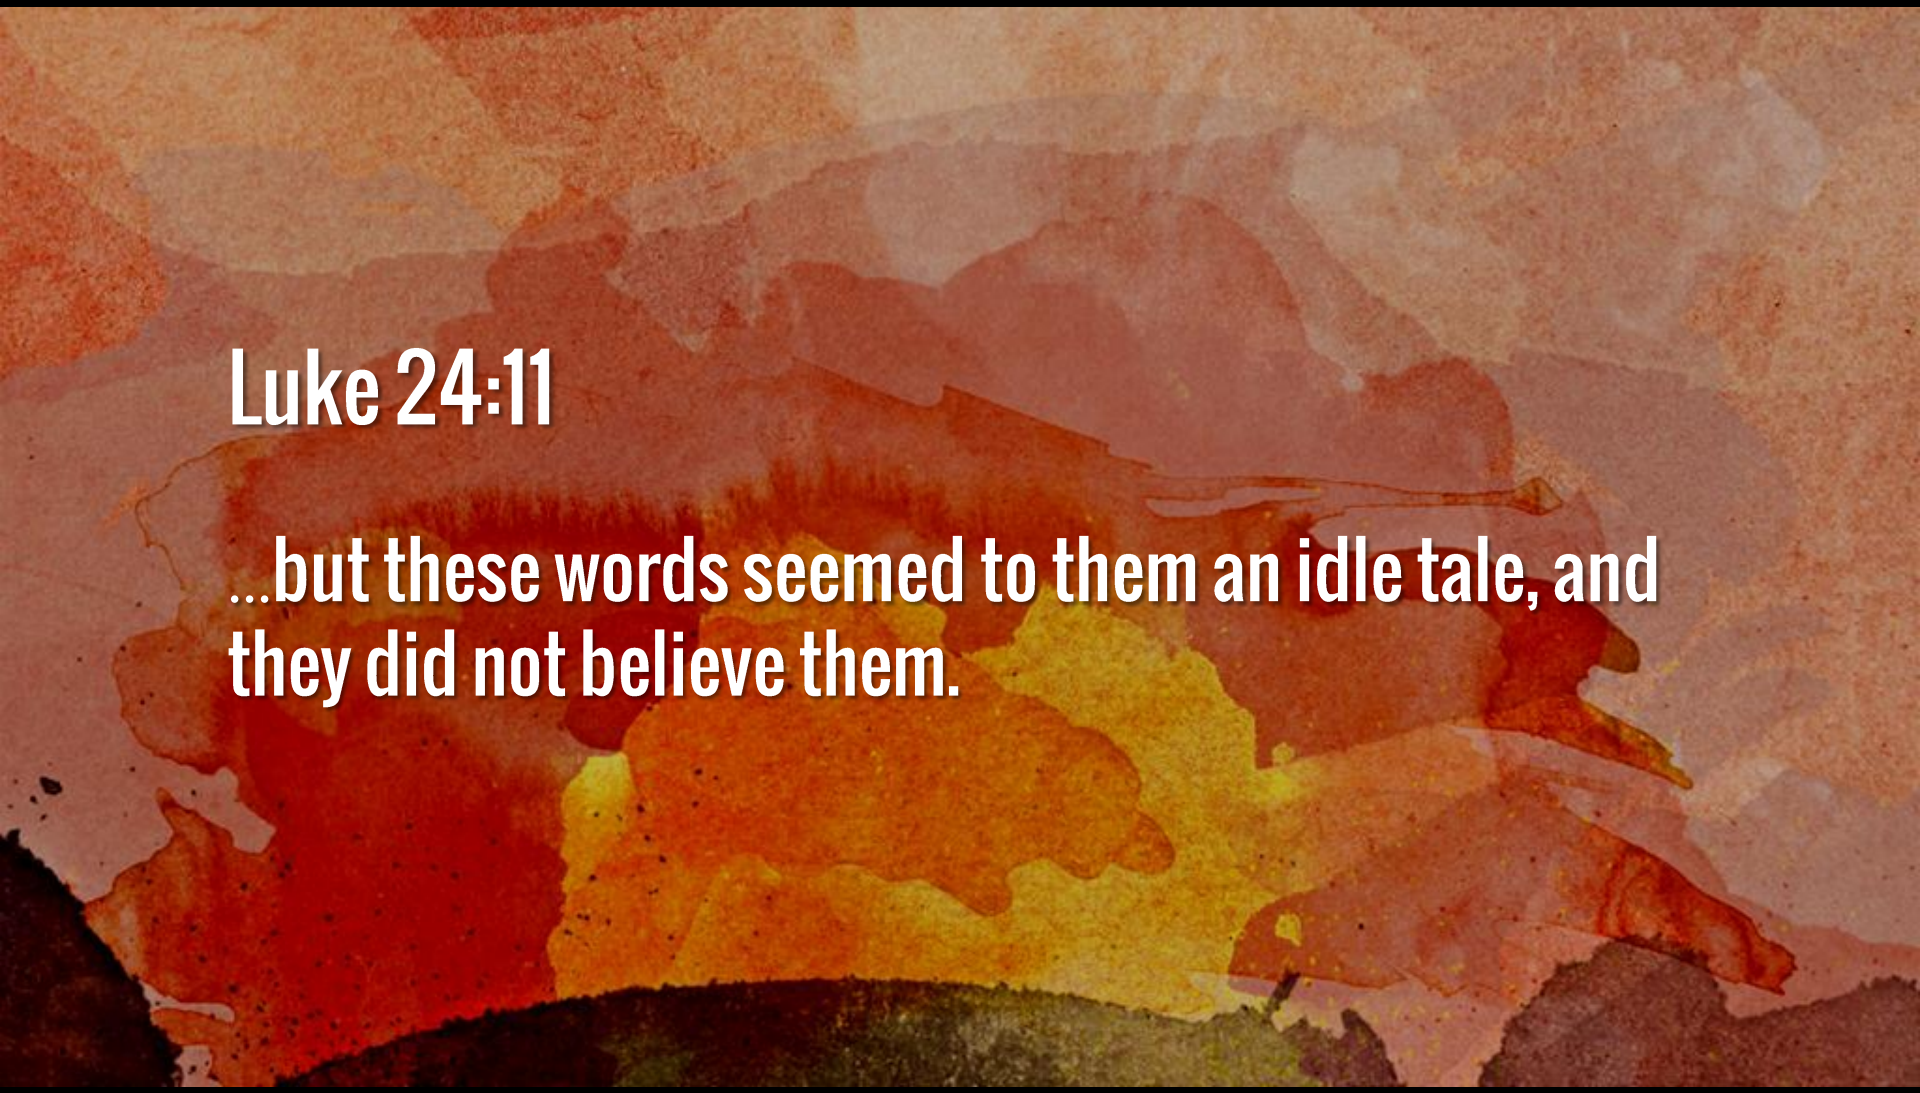


“That’s just life” is accepting how life is.
Easter is an invitation to experience what life should be.

Easter

Luke 24:9-10

...and returning from the tomb they told all these things to the eleven and to all the rest. Now it was Mary Magdalene and Joanna and Mary the mother of James and the other women with them who told these things to the apostles...



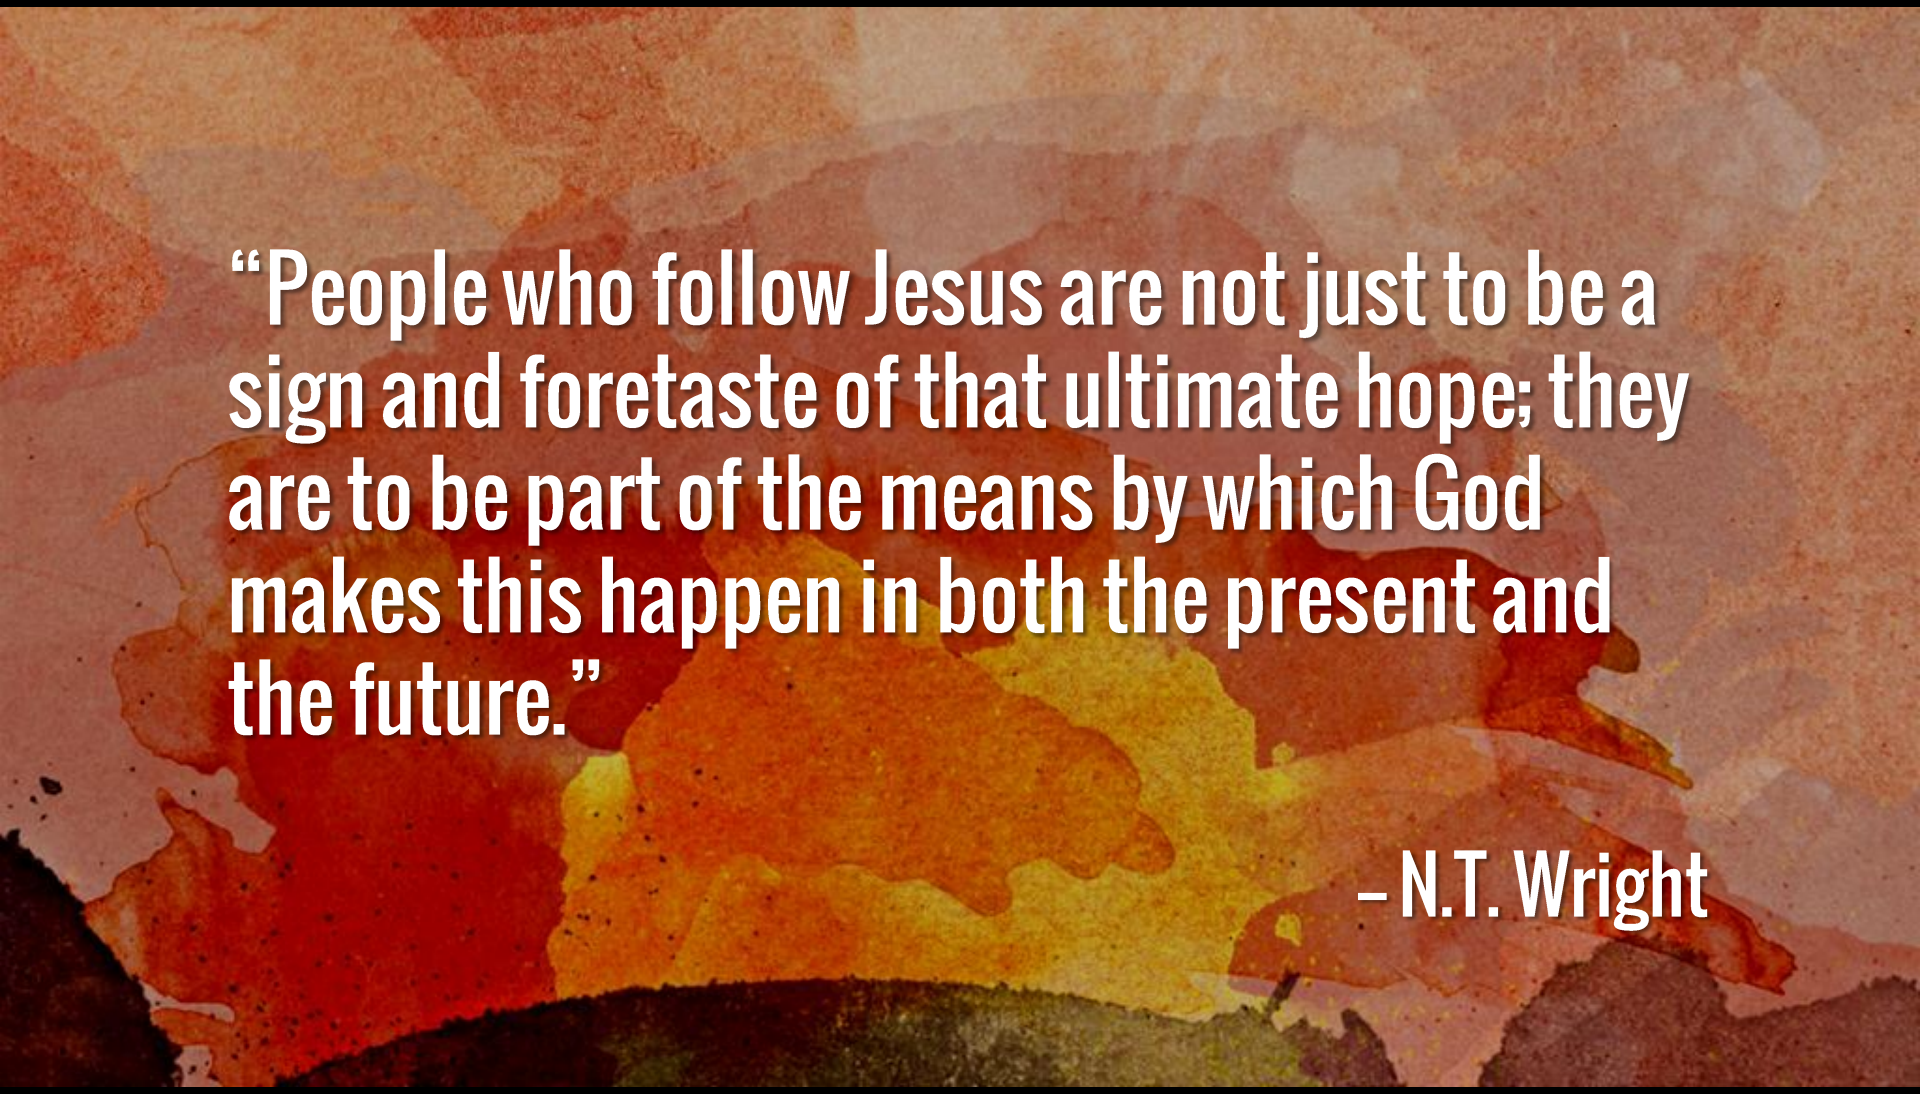
Luke 24:11
...but these words seemed to them an idle tale, and they did not believe them.

Easter

Luke 24:46-47

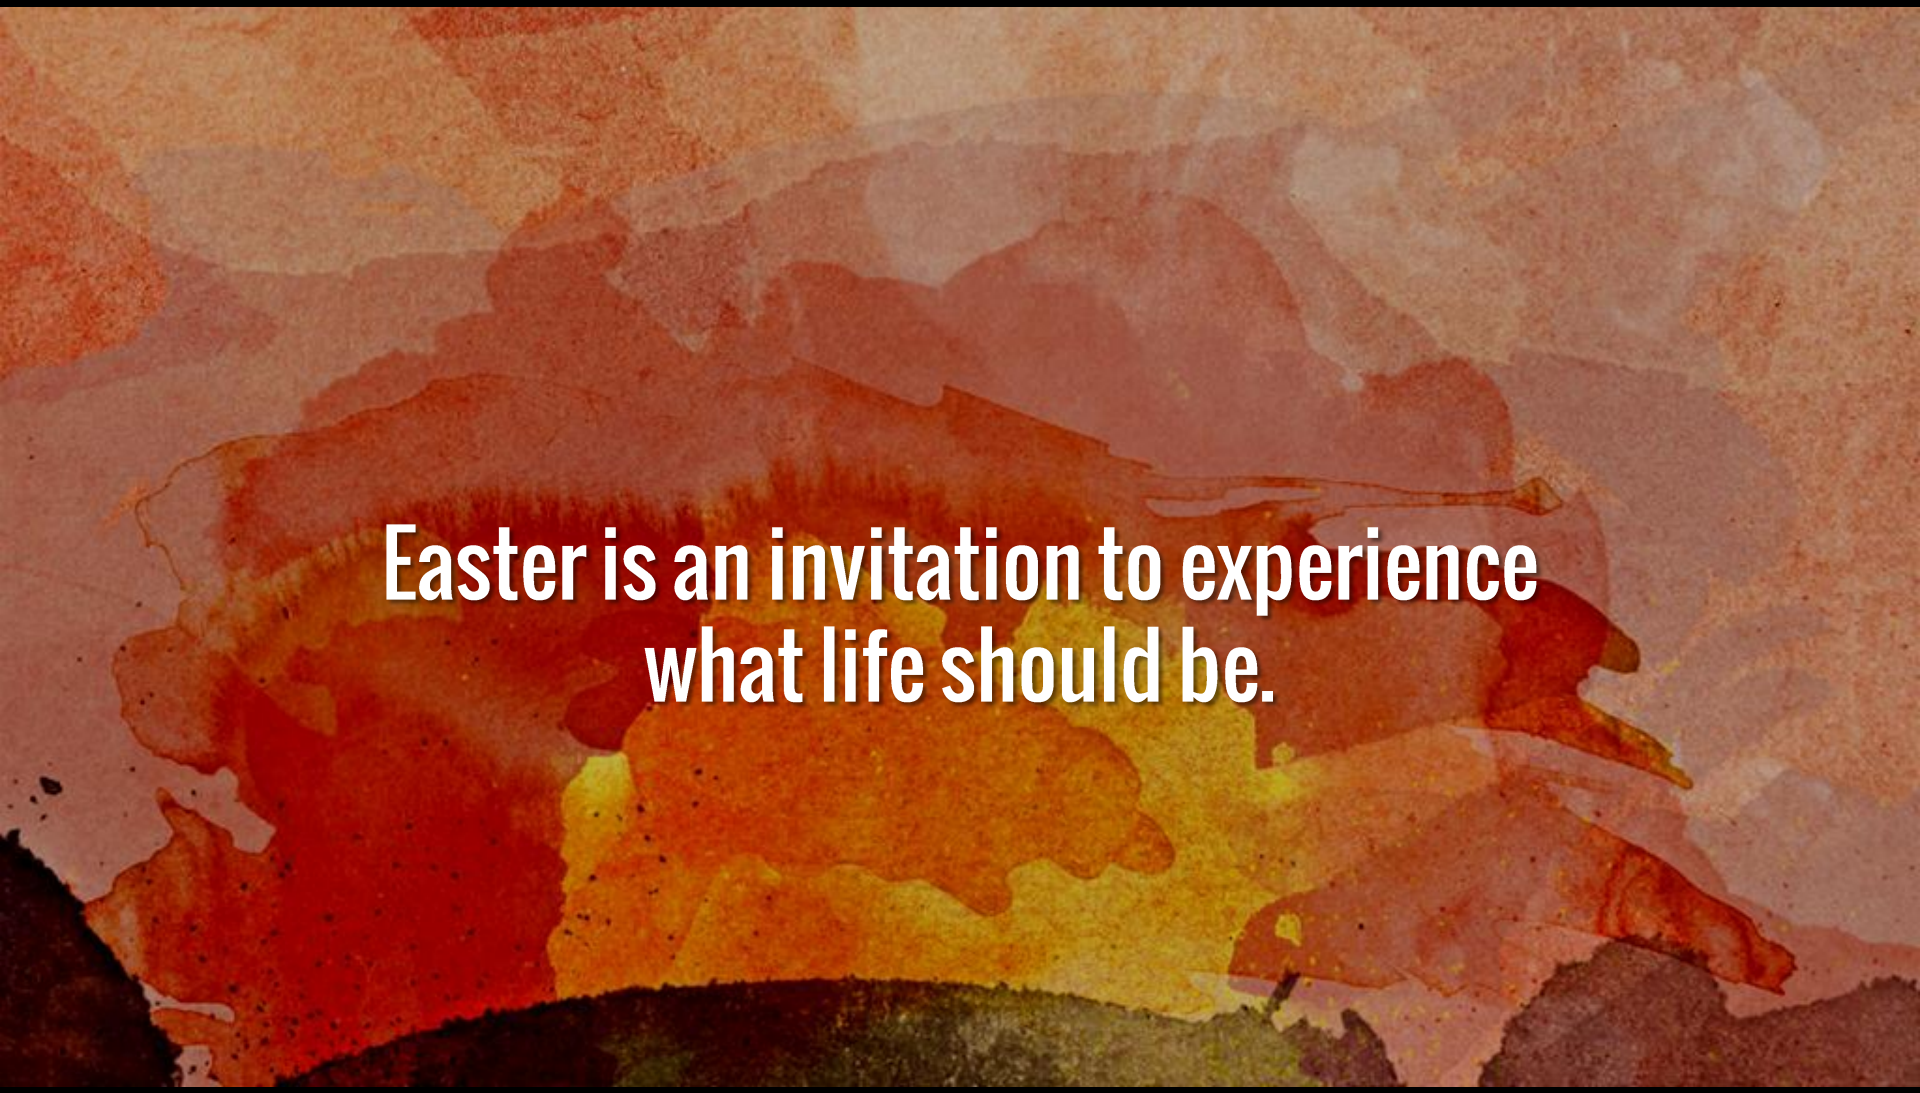
... and said to them, “Thus it is written, that the Christ should suffer and on the third day rise from the dead, and that repentance and forgiveness of sins should be proclaimed in his name to all nations, beginning from Jerusalem.

Easter



“People who follow Jesus are not just to be a sign and foretaste of that ultimate hope; they are to be part of the means by which God makes this happen in both the present and the future.”
– N.T. Wright

Easter



Easter is an invitation to experience
what life should be.

Easter