

Community Questions for November 15, 2020

Each we like to leave you some questions to take you further into the passage. In today's teaching Jesus calls us to build his truth into our lives.

Do you have any shoddy builder stories? Why do you think Jesus used this builder-analogy?

What do you find most challenging about going from hearing Jesus' words to practicing them?
Any solutions?

Pick one of Jesus' teachings in his sermon and practice it for a month. For example, what do you think might happen if you prayed for an 'enemy' every day for 30 days?

Pray for God's transforming grace – to be released among us.
