

Part Three: Time

Do you find yourself constantly too busy to do the things you need to do and want to do? When we really value something, we don't just find the time to do it, we make the time.

Scripture: Ephesians 5:15-17 ESV

Bottom Line: God gives us limited time to realize unlimited potential.

Discussion Questions

1. Are you the kind of person that keeps a rigid schedule or do you 'go with the flow'? What are some of the things in your life that take up the most time? What are some things that you wish you had more time for?
2. Are there things that you have spent considerable time investing in over the years that are paying off now? What are those things and what made it worthwhile to spend time in those areas of your life?
3. Read Ephesians 5:15-17. Why do you think Paul specifically addresses how we use our time, when he's instructing people to be wise?
4. Read Matthew 6:33. How does this verse help us to understand what God's will for us is? What do you think this looks like in the midst of our busy daily lives?
5. What are the biggest obstacles from making time investments in the things that are most important?

Moving Forward

What priorities need to get on your calendar and in your schedule? How can you make sure that you protect the priorities that you put in your schedule?
