What must I do for God to consider me a “good person”?

A night sky filled with numerous stars of varying brightness, set against a deep blue background. In the foreground, the silhouettes of sand dunes are visible, illuminated from the side, creating a warm, golden-brown glow. The overall scene is serene and evocative of a vast, open landscape under a clear night sky.

Abram believed the LORD, and he credited it to him as righteousness.

And he believed! Believed GOD! God declared him “Set-Right-with-God.”

But now a righteousness from God, apart from law, has been made known, to which the Law and the Prophets testify. This righteousness from God comes through faith in Jesus Christ to all who believe.

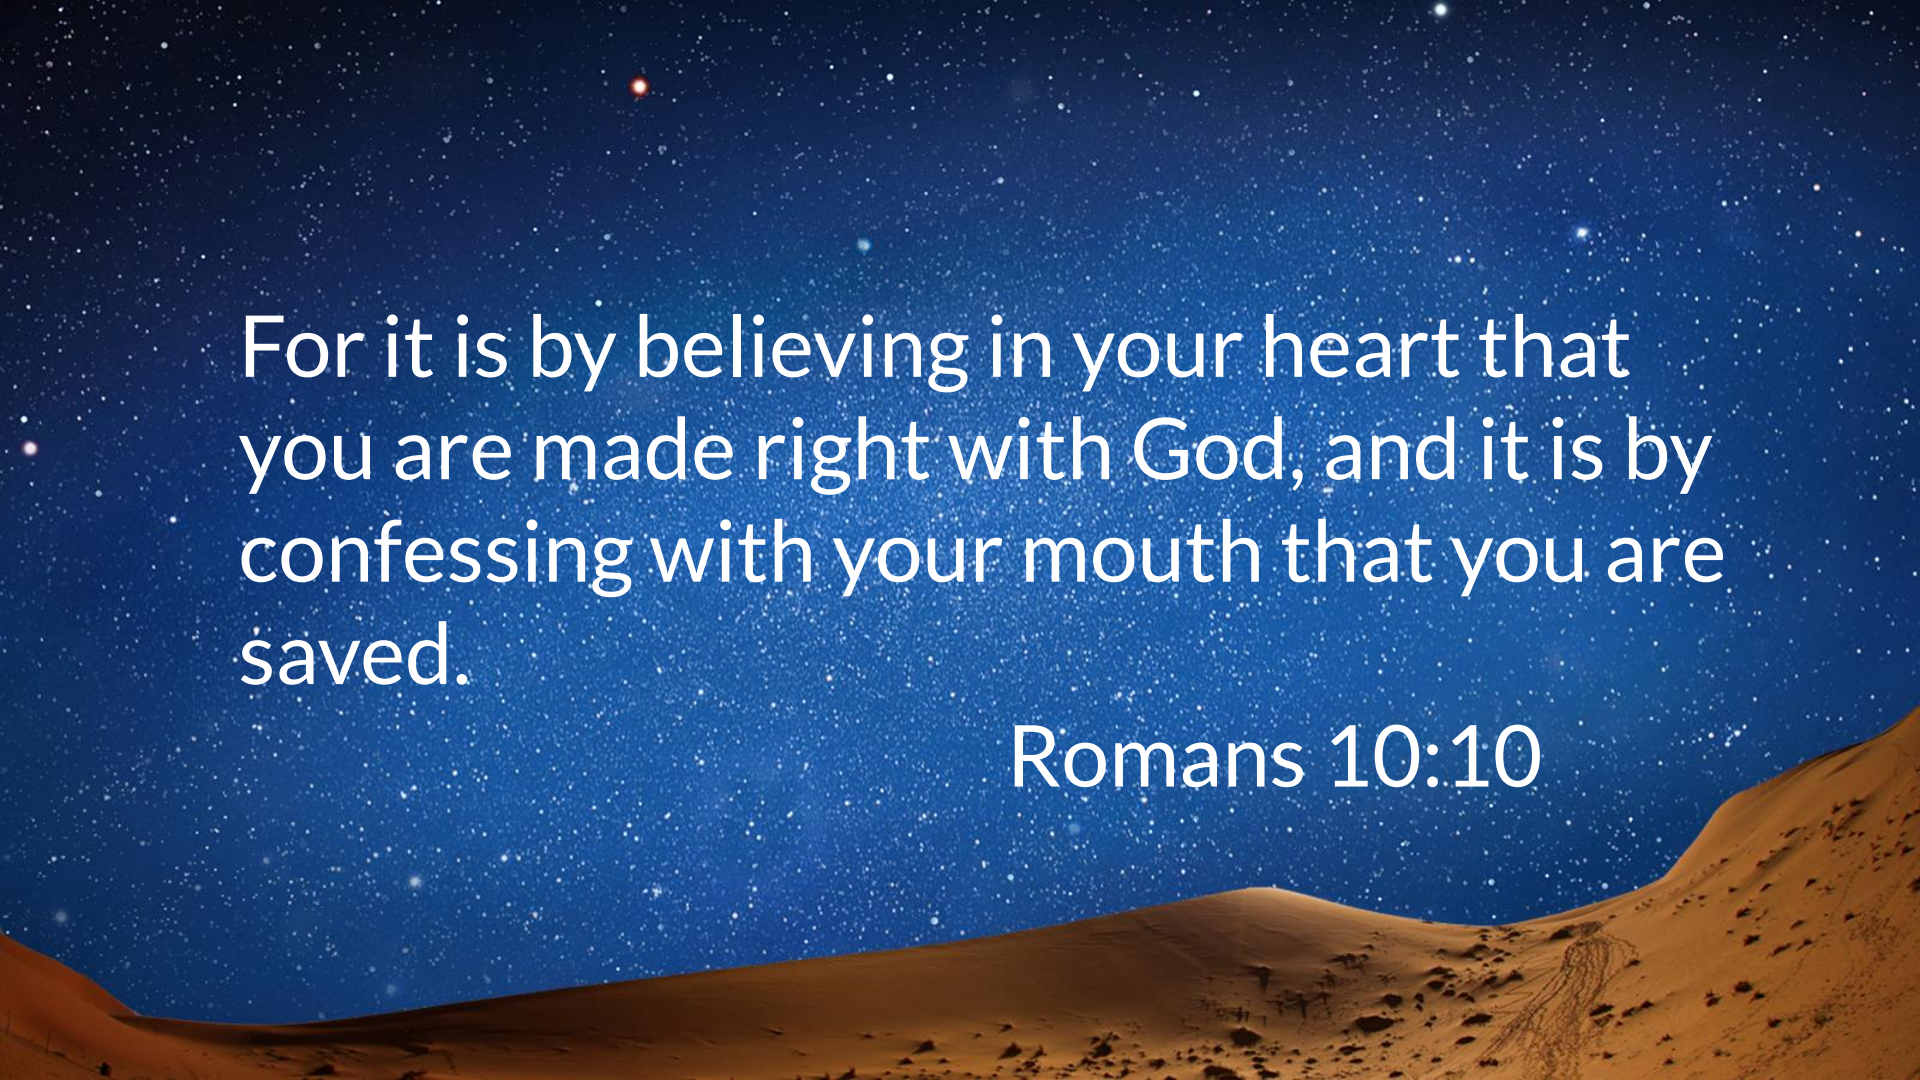

Romans 3:21-22

What then shall we say that Abraham, our forefather, discovered in this matter? If, in fact, Abraham was justified by works, he had something to boast about—but not before God. What does the Scripture say? “Abraham believed God, and it was credited to him as righteousness.” Now when a man works, his wages are not credited to him as a gift, but as an obligation. However, to the man who does not work but trusts God who justifies the wicked, his faith is credited as righteousness.

Romans 4:1-5

sola gratia
sola fide

For it is by believing in your heart that you are made right with God, and it is by confessing with your mouth that you are saved.

Romans 10:10

Questions on the Journey of Faith

1. What if my faith is wavering?
2. Why bother striving to be...
and do good?

Faith by itself, if it is not accompanied by action, is dead.
