1. What or who was the first source of Light?

Genesis 1:1-5, In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth. ²The earth was formless and empty, and darkness covered the deep waters. And the Spirit of God was hovering over the surface of the waters.³ Then God said, “Let there be light,” and there was light. ⁴And God saw that the light was good. Then he separated the light from the darkness. ⁵God called the light “day” and the darkness “night.” And evening passed and morning came, marking the first day.

4. Why do so many Christians say that Genesis 1-11 is a myth?

Creation

Chapters 1-11 of Genesis are rightly understood as accurate, real history as Jesus and the New Testament affirm (Matthew 19:4; Matthew 24:37-39; Romans 5:12-14). God created the universe and all that is in it through direct, immediate activity (Genesis 1-2; Exodus 20:11; Hebrews 11:3).

1 Cor. 15:52-53, ⁵² It will happen in a moment, in the blink of an eye, when the last trumpet is blown. For when the trumpet sounds, those who have died will be raised to live forever. And we who are living will also be transformed. ⁵³ For our dying bodies must be transformed into bodies that will never die; our mortal bodies must be transformed into immortal bodies.
