THIS SUNDAY

Today we welcome Jo Vitale who is speaking on "Is God sexist?". Jo is Dean of Studies at the Zacharias Institute and an Itinerant Speaker for RZIM.

During her years in Oxford, Jo graduated with a first-class degree in theology, an MSt in Biblical interpretation, and a PhD in Old Testament studies. Her doctoral dissertation was on the subject of "Women and Beauty in the Old Testament".

With her background in biblical studies, Jo has a particular passion for speaking on questions of Biblical reliability, challenges to the character of God (including questions related to sexism, war, slavery and judgement in the Old and New Testaments), and the uniqueness of Jesus Christ in a world of competing truth claims.

PRAYER MATTERS

Join us in prayer this week for Kelly Johnson and Live again Rwanda (LAR), the counseling and training organization she leads in Rwanda. Let's give thanks for and ask for God's blessing on Kelly and Celo's new marriage and life together. We can also give thanks for the administrative and counselling staff who have joined LAR in the last months and pray that they grow and develop together to best help the clients God brings to them. Please pray that the negotiations for a training program to be offered to the National Bank of Rwanda are successful and that LAR may further reach out to the community, but with increased financial stability.
