

Home Group Questions: May 14, 2017

Exodus 15:1-21

1. What is the role of singing for believers? Why has God created music?
2. What is the content of this song of praise? How should this inform our approach to worship songs?
3. Praise is personal. What does that mean? How do we see this in verses 1-3? Is it that for you? Discuss.
4. How have you experienced the power of God?
5. The Christian God is the only God. How is this significant in the world in which we live? What challenges do we face in believing this?
6. Why does God make the nations tremble (vv.14-16)? As we look forward, how will this play out? What does that mean for us?
7. "The LORD will reign forever and ever." (v.18) Discuss.
8. Discuss verses 20-21. What does this suggest about what worship should look like? Do we have this attitude?

Home Group Questions: May 14, 2017

Exodus 15:1-21

1. What is the role of singing for believers? Why has God created music?
2. What is the content of this song of praise? How should this inform our approach to worship songs?
3. Praise is personal. What does that mean? How do we see this in verses 1-3? Is it that for you? Discuss.
4. How have you experienced the power of God?
5. The Christian God is the only God. How is this significant in the world in which we live? What challenges do we face in believing this?
6. Why does God make the nations tremble (vv.14-16)? As we look forward, how will this play out? What does that mean for us?
7. "The LORD will reign forever and ever." (v.18) Discuss.
8. Discuss verses 20-21. What does this suggest about what worship should look like? Do we have this attitude?