Because His compassions fail not.
They are new every morning;
Great is Your faithfulness.*

God's Filling Station

Service stations have almost become obsolete. In times past, every filling station used to offer oil changes, lubes, and minor tune-ups and repairs. Someone used to pump your gas and clean your windshield free of charge. Now most filling stations have self service, automatic, "pay at the pump" gas, rest rooms, and convenience stores.

Thanks be to God that His "filling stations" are still "full service." As we continue to leak like the "cracked pots" that we are, how encouraging it is to know that our Heavenly Father not only owns the cattle on a thousand hills, but that He has hundreds of thousands of "filling stations" throughout the world, where believers can go and be filled with God's grace through the hearing of His Word, strengthened and refreshed by His Spirit, and encouraged by the love and witness of fellow believers.

May we all, by the power of the Holy Spirit, look forward, with great anticipation and joy, to being filled regularly with the food that endures by worshipping regularly and in spirit and truth, at "God's Filling stations."

The steadfast love of the Lord never ceases.

Lamentations 3:21

Jeremiah was depressed, as gloomy as a giraffe with a neck ache. Jerusalem was under siege, his nation under duress. His world collapsed like a sand castle in a typhoon. He faulted God for his horrible emotional distress. He also blamed God for his physical ailments. He [God] has made my flesh and my skin waste away, and broken my bones. — Lamentations 3:4

His body ached. His heart was sick. His faith was puny... He realized how fast he was sinking, so he shifted his gaze. But this I call to mind, and therefore I have hope: The steadfast love of the Lord never ceases, His mercies never come to an end; they are new every morning; great is Thy faithfulness. 'The Lord is my portion,' says my soul, 'therefore I will hope in Him'. — Lamentations 3:21-24

"But this I call to mind..." Depressed, Jeremiah altered his thoughts, shifted his attention. He turned his eyes away from his stormy world and looked into the wonder of God.

He quickly recited a quintet of promises:

1. The steadfast love of the Lord never ceases.
2. His mercies never come to an end.
3. They are new every morning.
4. Great is Thy faithfulness.
5. The Lord is my portion.

The storm didn't cease, but his discouragement did. When everything goes wrong, when your heart gets broken, when troubles rise above your head, when discouragement and depression weigh heavily upon you, where do you turn your eyes? Today, if you're in that place, tap out that list on your fingers. Remind yourself that God is good over and over again. Receive His comfort and lean on His faithfulness!

Thank You, precious Savior, that Your love is steadfast. Thank You that Your mercies are new every morning. Thank You for Your great faithfulness, not only to me but to all Your people from the first day of creation. When I am tempted to become depressed and distressed, may I choose to gaze on You. May I remember that You are my portion. May I hope in Your unceasing love. Amen.

Study To Show Thyself Approved Unto God .... 2 Tim. 2:15

Study is disciplining the mind to consistent, purposeful labor and accomplishment. The motive must be love. If we do not love God enough to want to study and learn all we can about His Word and Work, then we are of no use to Him. Be sure your reading is purposeful, beneficial study.
