THINKING THINGS THROUGH

1. Do you consider yourself someone who has a hopeful outlook on life?

2. How does hope affect the way you do life?

How does it change your outlook, actions, and relationships?

DIGGING DEEPER

READ LUKE 24:1-8

3. If you were one of the women, what's the first thing that would go through your mind?

What would you do?

4. What do the intentions of the women reveal about the hopes and dreams they had placed in Jesus?

And what does it reveal about their relationship with Him?

5. Mary thought that Jesus' body had been taken. Should the disciples have known that Jesus would rise from the tomb?

Why or why not?

6. What does Luke 18:31-34 add to the discussion of whether they should have known or not?

READ LUKE 24:9-12

7. How did Peter react to the news of an empty tomb?

Think about everything Peter had been through with Jesus, from the transfiguration to walking on water, and then his denial of Jesus the night of Jesus' arrest. Why do you think Peter, of all the disciples, was the one to run to the tomb?

8. Why is it hard to trust God when our plans don't match up with His plan?

What does Peter's experience teach us about how to handle these uncomfortable and confusing situations in our lives?
