

Study Guide Hebrews 1

Most Bibles have an introduction to each Biblical book.
Have two people in your group read the introduction to the book of Hebrews.

From these introductions what did you learn and how does this impact how you read the book of Hebrews?

What opposition to faith do we face today?

Read Hebrews 1:1-4

What do we learn theologically from these verses?

*For the Word of God
is sharper than any
two-edged sword —
is a lamp unto my feet and
a light unto my path*
the Bible

Study Guide Hebrews 1

Most Bibles have an introduction to each Biblical book.
Have two people in your group read the introduction to the book of Hebrews.

From these introductions what did you learn and how does this impact how you read the book of Hebrews?

What opposition to faith do we face today?

Read Hebrews 1:1-4

What do we learn theologically from these verses?

*For the Word of God
is sharper than any
two-edged sword —
is a lamp unto my feet and
a light unto my path*
the Bible

The Son provides a true and trustworthy picture of the Father. Sometimes our view of the Father can be skewed negatively as viewed through the Old Testament. How does this description of Jesus change things?

What is the author trying to say about Christ?

Read the story of two couples from George H. Guthrie.

Do you know someone who has drifted away from the faith? Why do you think this happened? Why do people quit church?

How can we help one another maintain commitment to Christ, spurring one another on?

Pray for one another to run the race.

The Son provides a true and trustworthy picture of the Father. Sometimes our view of the Father can be skewed negatively as viewed through the Old Testament. How does this description of Jesus change things?

What is the author trying to say about Christ?

Read the story of two couples from George H. Guthrie.

Do you know someone who has drifted away from the faith? Why do you think this happened? Why do people quit church?

How can we help one another maintain commitment to Christ, spurring one another on?

Pray for one another to run the race.

