

WHO CARES?

A CONVERSATION ABOUT SOMETHING THAT CHANGES EVERYTHING

Part Four: Community

The last thing many of us need is another commitment. Our lives are busy and squeezing in more obligations to our schedule sometimes seems impossible. The truth is though, that we make time for the things that are most important to us... and this is important.

Scripture: 1 Peter 2:1-5

Bottom Line: You may not want another commitment, but you need an intentional community.

Discussion Questions

1. Have you ever had a time in your life when you felt particularly isolated or on your own? What are some of the things that led you to that circumstance in your life? What were some of the challenges you faced as a result (emotional, spiritual, physical, etc)?
2. Have you had people show up in your life in a way that you felt God was really impacting you? How did those relationships help you in your relationship with God, in your circumstances and in life in general?
3. Read 1 Peter 2:1-5. In the following verses, Jesus is referred to as the Cornerstone. His followers are referred to as living stones. What is the function of a cornerstone? What effect does the cornerstone have on all of the other (living) stones?
4. We often think of 'church' as a building or a worship service. How does it change the way we think of Church when we see that it is the people who make up the house (or temple) of God? Why do you think it is significant that Peter talks about people being built up into a spiritual house?
5. The people are also called a holy priesthood in this passage. What do you think that means when it comes to how we should relate to one another?

Moving Forward

What implications does this have for what we should be doing when we meet in Life Group together?
