When is the Day of the Lord?

Just prior to Jesus' ascension into heaven His disciples asked Him, "Lord, will you at this time restore the kingdom to Israel?"

He said to them, "It is not for you to know times or seasons that the Father has fixed by his own authority" (Acts 1:6-7).

So if the Father has this time already fixed and Jesus said it wasn't for even the disciples to know, how can we expect anyone else to know? The answer is we don't know and we shouldn't even try to guess because, "The secret things belong to the Lord our God, but the things that are revealed belong to us and to our children forever" (Duet 29:29).

We have no business trying to find out because those are the secret things and they "belong to the Lord our God" and are none of our business. One thing we do know is that "the things that are revealed belong to us," and what has been revealed to us is that we are to go into all the world and make disciples of all nations, even if it is next door (Matt 28:18-20).

Call to Worship Scripture

2 Corinthians 6:2

For He says: In an acceptable time I have heard you,
And in the day of salvation I have helped you. Behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation.

Children's Ministry

Beulah offers a unified service that serves the whole family during the 10:45 Morning Worship service. Children, ages 3 years through 5th grade, will be dismissed during the "handshake greeting" to go to Praise Factory A.M., the Sunday School class on their learning and age level. Praise Factory P.M. meets on Sunday night 5:00-6:30, ages 3 through 5th grade.

Hey Parents of Little Ones!

Our nursery uses light up pagers. The nursery worker will give you a small pager to hold onto after you leave your little one in the nursery. If your pager lights up, then you will know that you are needed. These work great, so rest easy!

Walk Worthy of the Lord

By John Piper, Author of 30 Reasons Why I Love the Apostle Paul

What does this mean? Does it mean that we are to become "worth" God's favor? That is, does "worthy of" mean - deserving or meriting or earning God's favor? Does it call attention to our worth which God is obliged to acknowledge because it enriches his worth, the way a great computer programmer might be worth $200,000 to Microsoft?

Here are five uses of "walk worthy" from the Scriptures:

- 3 John 1:6, "You will do well to send them on their way in a manner worthy of God."
- Thessalonians 2:12, "Walk in a manner worthy of the God who calls you into His own kingdom and glory."
- Colossians 1:10, "Walk in a manner worthy of the Lord, to please Him in all respects, bearing fruit in every good work and increasing in the knowledge of God."
- Philippians 1:27, "Conduct yourselves in a manner worthy of the gospel of Christ."
- Ephesians 4:1, "Walk in a manner worthy of the calling with which you have been called."

I don't think these texts mean that we merit from God or the gospel or our call; but that they merit from us. That is, to "walk worthy of the Lord" means to walk in a way that the Lord deserves from us, not in a way that we deserve from the Lord. A clue is found in Colossians 1:10 which says, "Walk worthy of the Lord, to please him." But Hebrews 11:6 says, "Without faith it is impossible to please him." So the call to walk "worthy of the Lord" is at least a call to walk by faith.

But faith looks away from itself to the worth and ability and grace and strength of another. So walking "worthy of the Lord" would mean acting in a way that shows how worthy and able and gracious and strong the Lord is.

Walk in a manner worthy of the God who calls you into His own kingdom and glory. (1 Thessalonians 2:12)
