

(in'ter-sĕkt') –To cut across; to overlap each other

SEPARATION ANXIETY

HONEST QUESTIONS

There are some CHALLENGING chapters in the journey of faith.

Honest questions are WELCOMED by God.

CHERISHED MEMORIES

Looking BACK helps move us FORWARD.

Remember the MOUNTAIN TOP moments when you're walking through the VALLEYS.

STUBBORN HOPE

Don't confuse the end PRODUCT with the PROCESS.

Don't DENY your emotions, but don't let them DEFINE you.

That's the goal of the word of God: to cut across and overlap into our everyday lives. These questions will help us dig a little deeper and make sure that what we are learning is intersecting with our every day lives. They also serve as the framework for discussion and study in our life groups.

RESET

1. What are you celebrating this week?
2. Take some time to reflect across your past week and/or message notes. What stood out to you? How have you seen God at work? (a song... conversation... prayer... etc?)

OUR JOURNEY

3. How would you describe your Thanksgiving this year?

4. Are you someone who tends to overstate or to stuff your feelings?

DIGGING IN

5. Read through the account of Jesus' moment of desolation at Gethsemane in Matthew 26:36-ff. How does the way He went through such a challenging moment impact the way I persevere through my own?

MAKING IT REAL

6. Pastor Brian talked about the difference between the end product and the process that gets us there. Where am I in the process right now?

7. Where do I need to apply stubborn hope in my life right now?

8. What is my prayer request for my specific areas of struggle throughout this challenging year we are in?
