

Part 3: How Long?

There are times when life seems to crumble around us, when it seems like there are no reasons behind our struggles, and God doesn't seem to notice our pain. In these times it may seem impossible to know how we can move forward and who we can turn to. But there is an answer.

Scripture: Psalm 13

Bottom Line: When our life turns to chaos, and it feels like God is far away, we need to cling to His promise.

Discussion Questions

Our Life Groups ministry takes a break through the months of July & August.