God's Covenant-Keeping Love

1. Read Ruth 2:17-23

2. The opposite of the kind of love that the Book of Ruth teaches us is perhaps the word abandonment. Have you ever felt abandoned? Have you ever felt abandoned by God? Describe what was happening. _____
_____
_____

3. Hesed has no English equivalent, but it is described as a love that sticks in there, does not quit, keeps giving even if undeserved. The first time this is used in Ruth is Chapter 1:8. Read this verse  . Note that Naomi is paralleling human and divine hesed.

4. The second time this is used in Ruth is Chapter 2:20. Note this verse  . When Naomi recognizes Boaz's hesed to "the living and the dead" she is implying that this kind of love is p _ _ _ _ ent.

5. The third use of the phrase is in Chapter 3:10. Note it please  . We haven't reached that part of the story yet, but we see that Ruth has shown hesed twice: once to Naomi and now to Boaz. What is the key word that describes hesed in this verse? _____

6. Hesed is not lusting or even liking. It's stickability through thick and thin. According to Pastor Jim, what or where is the closest our culture gets to describing this kind of love? _____
_____

7. Re-read the following verses that pertain to God's hesed love to His covenant people:
  - a. Isaiah 54:8
  - b. Isaiah 54:10

- c. Lamentations 3:22
- d. Lamentations 3:32
- e. Isaiah 63:7

8. We are children of the New Covenant. Jeremiah 32:40 is one part of the New Covenant promise. To believe the truth of this, how should your life be different? _____
