BY THE SPIRIT

50 years ago, J.I. Packer, a wise Christian theologian, stated in his book Knowing God, "The average Christian is in a complete fog as to what work the Holy Spirit does." Although the ministry of the Spirit is widely sought and celebrated in some parts these days, Packer's conclusion is often still too true. This is startling in the light of the simple reality that the Christian life – life in Jesus – is, fundamentally, a life lived by the Spirit.

With this in mind, we are spending this season exploring together the person, passion and ministry of the Holy Spirit, not just for the sake of being informed, but so that we might truly honour, cooperate with and live by the Spirit.

This Sunday we will consider together what it means to pray by the Spirit.

PRAYER MATTERS

This morning we pray for Aimee with InterVarsity Christian Fellowship, who will be sharing with us next Sunday. Aimee is currently teaching English at a University in China, establishing relationships with students, and sharing the Good News with them. Aimee moved to a new University last year, expecting to be there for several years, but changes at the University mean she will have to move again.

Please pray:

- for Aimee and a team member who will be relocating to a new University in another city,
- for the team member left behind to work with a much smaller team
- for the students with whom Aimee has established relationships, but she will now be leaving, and for those who have responded positively
- for Aimee's trip home to Vancouver and Victoria this month and successful fundraising while she is home
