Hymn: Praise to the Lord, the Almighty

Praise to the Lord, the Almighty, the King of creation!
O my soul, praise Him, for He is thy health and salvation!
All ye who hear, now to His temple draw near;
Praise Him in glad adoration.

Praise to the Lord, Who doth prosper thy work and defend thee;
Surely His goodness and mercy here daily attend thee.
Ponder anew what the Almighty can do,
If with His love He befriend thee.

Praise to the Lord, Who, when tempests their warfare are waging,
Who, when the elements madly around thee are raging,
Biddeth them cease, turneth their fury to peace,
Whirlwinds and waters assuaging.

Praise to the Lord, Who, when darkness of sin is abounding,
Who, when the godless do triumph, all virtue confounding,
Sheddeth His light, chaseth the horrors of night,
Saints with His mercy surrounding.

Praise to the Lord, O let all that is in me adore Him!
All that hath life and breath, come now with praises before Him.
Let the Amen sound from His people again,
Gladly for aye we adore Him.

Our Spiritual Meditation: Jairus (3)

UCB Word For Today - JULY 20, 2018

'Her spirit returned, and she arose...And her parents were astonished.'
- Luke 8:55-56 NKJV

You can do your very best for your children, and still stand where Jairus stood. You can love them, protect them, and pray for them, and still find yourself in an emergency ward at midnight or a drug rehab clinic on visitors' Sunday choosing between two voices: despair and belief. Who would have faulted Jairus for giving up?

When he first went to Jesus, his daughter was critically ill but still alive. Then while he was talking to Jesus, word arrived: 'Your daughter is dead' (v. 49 NLT). In that moment Jesus looked at Jairus and said, 'Don't be afraid. Just have faith, and she will be healed' (v. 50 NLT). Whether stopping the child's sickness in its tracks, or raising her from the dead, Jesus was the answer to Jairus' problem. And He is the answer to your family problem too.

Notice two things Jesus did: 1) He dismissed those who mourned but had no faith (see Luke 8:51). Be careful who you let get close to you, especially in times of crisis. 2) He united the parents in faith. 'When Jesus went to the house, he let only Peter, John, James, and the girl's father and mother go inside with him' (v. 51 NCV). At that point He 'took her by the hand and called, saying, "Little girl, arise." Then her spirit returned, and she arose immediately...And her parents were astonished' (vv. 54-56 NKJV).

When you pray and put your faith in Christ, He can do things in your family that will amaze you!
