

Sermon Summary: Nov 10, 2019

Forgiveness - Matthew 18:21-35

- Our fallen humanity naturally wants to follow the Law of Lamech (Gen 4:23-24). But Jesus has called those who follow him to a much higher standard. The standard of forgiveness (Mat 18:21–22).
- Jesus really commands us to forgive without limit because he has done this for us (Mat 18:23-35).
- What is forgiveness?
 - Not forgetting, excusing, or reconciling.
 - Forgiveness means to take pity, cancel the debt, and let them go.
 - Forgiveness is only complete when we can bless them.
- Why should I forgive?
 - To free ourselves from the eternal and the current prison that forgiveness keeps us in.
- How to forgive?
 - God has forgiven our debt which is bigger than any debt anyone could ever have to us.
 - When we truly grasp God's forgiveness of us then we will not be able to hold back forgiveness from others.
