Christmas Project | Your donations to the Compassion Child Survival Program give pregnant women and new mothers knowledge and resources to ensure their children not only survive but thrive in these most critical years of life. Today is the last day to donate. Please mark your donation with the designation “Compassion Survival.”

Donations for fiscal year | We’re coming to the end of the fiscal year. Donations must be in the church office by December 31 by 11am in order to be included on your tax receipt for 2020.

Estate Update | We have been blessed with a generous gift from the estate of Vera Neilson. Her family is pleased that Vera included Central in her will as she enjoyed being part of our church family. Her son, Larry, and daughter, Deanna Hutchings, have directed these funds to us "in appreciation for the church's contribution to Mom (and Dad's) quality of life."

PRAY

Pray for those in our church family and in the community suffering from illness, unemployment, brokenness in families, addiction, and other life-altering circumstances. It has been a difficult year and many will continue to feel the isolation over the holidays. Ask the Lord to pour out his hope, faith, and love, and for his grace to make all things new. Pray that we may be a church family who reaches out to comfort, encourage, and care for others.
