Archbishop Smith's Pastoral Letter entitled Living in the Word of God invites us all to renew our focus on Scripture as we answer the call of the Holy Father Pope Francis. The complete letter can be found at caedm.ca/letter & www.sacredheartchurch.ca. A portion from the letter follows:

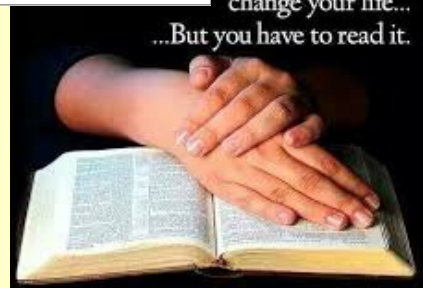

The only sure foundation of our lives is Jesus Christ. He alone brings to light the meaning of our existence and makes known its definitive direction. Sadly, however, world events manifest a turning away from God and thus from hope. They demonstrate that too many people are building their lives on foundations other than the person and message of Jesus Christ, which is to say they are constructing the edifice of their existence upon nothing more than shifting sand (cf. Matthew 7:24-27).

Point to Ponder: Am I living on solid ground, or shifting sands?

TOGETHER WE SERVE: A message from the Archdiocese

Pope Francis tells us that by virtue of baptism, "all the members of the People of God have become missionary disciples." (cf. Evangelii Gaudium; Mt. 28.19). While not all of us are called to direct missionary service, all of us can indeed be instruments of God's mercy and compassion, locally and globally, through our financial sacrifices to Together We Serve in His name.

The Works of God

Sunday August 5th

18th Sunday of Ordinary Time

Gospel Reading for Sunday: John 6:24-35

The Lord gave them the bread of heaven. Psalm 78

"What must we do to perform the works of God?" the people ask in today's Gospel. As Disciples of Christ we too desire to know what we must do to be good Catholic Christians. St. Paul gives us a hint in the second reading today, "Clothe yourselves with the New Man". Putting on the mind of Christ means loving as he loves, giving as he gives, and serving as he serves. This is good stewardship. What gives us the confidence and courage to follow Jesus' example? The strength and nourishment we need is found in the bread of life.

Strength

Sunday August 12th

19th Sunday of Ordinary Time

Gospel Reading for Sunday: John 6:41-51

Taste and see that the Lord is good. Psalm 34

In today's first reading Elijah seems ready to give up. His calling has become a burden. Yet, God gives Elijah the nourishment he needs to continue. Sometimes, in the face of the constant media barrage telling us to seek more and more pleasure and possessions, the stewardship way of life may seem burdensome. The opposite is true. People discover that a lived experience of stewardship is actually very freeing and the stewardship way of life offers many rewards. When we grow weary on the journey, we are blessed to share in the Eucharist which gives us strength.

Glorify the Lord

Sunday August 19th

20th Sunday of Ordinary Time

Gospel Reading for Sunday:

Mark 6:51-58

Taste and see that the Lord is good. Psalm 34

What an awesome gift we receive in Holy Communion. As stewards of this great mystery our challenge is to go into the world and give joyful witness to what we believe! Sunday after Sunday we are sent to glorify our Lord by the example of our lives. It is in the little things we do with great love that good stewardship is demonstrated.

Gift of Each Other

Sunday August 26th

21st Sunday of Ordinary Time

Gospel Reading for Sunday:

John 6:53,60-69

Taste and see that the Lord is good. Psalm 34

One of the great gifts of the stewardship spirituality is the constant reminder that everything in life is a gift from God, including our relationships, especially in marriage. Husbands and wives are a gift from God to each other. In recognizing this, each naturally desire to nurture and care for the other. As St. Paul reminds us in the second reading helping each other get to heaven is one of the great joys of marriage and is an excellent example of good stewardship!

OFFICIAL FAMILY PRAYER FOR WORLD MEETING OF FAMILIES AUGUST 2018

God, our Father,
We are brothers and sisters in Jesus
your Son,
One family, in the Spirit of your love.

Bless us with the joy of love.
Make us patient and kind,
gentle and generous,
welcoming to those in need.
Help us to live your forgiveness and peace.

Protect all families with your loving care,
Especially those for whom we now pray:

[We pause and remember family members and others by name].

Increase our faith,
Strengthen our hope,
Keep us safe in your love,
Make us always grateful for the gift
of life that we share.

This we ask, through Christ our Lord. Amen.

*Mary, mother and guide,
pray for us.
Saint Joseph, father and protector,
pray for us.
Saints Joachim and Anne,
pray for us.
Saints Louis and Zélie Martin,
pray for us.*

CCCB STATEMENT ON LEGALIZATION OF CANNABIS

On 19 June 2018, the Senate passed Bill C-45, the Cannabis Act. On 21 June 2018, the Bill received Royal Assent, thereby legalizing marijuana for recreational use in Canada.

In response, the Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops (CCCB) is issuing a Ten Reasons to Embrace "Holy Leisure"!

The Play's the Thing

by Jayne Jaudon Ferrer

Forgive me, Lord,
for all the tasks
that went undone today.
But this morning when my child
toddled in and asked, "Mommy play?"
I simply had to say yes.
And between the puzzles and trucks and blocks and dolls and old hats and books and giggles,
we shared a thousand special thoughts,
a hundred hopes and dreams and hugs.
And tonight, when prayer time came
and he folded his hands and softly whispered,
"Thank you, God, for Mommy and Daddy and toys and french fries, but 'specially for Mommy playing,"
I knew it was a day well wasted.
And I knew You'd understand.

From A New Mother's Prayers

The May 22nd edition of the Quid Novum profiles the article 10 Reasons to Embrace Holy Leisure by Sr Theresa Noble. Noble's article includes quotes by St. John Paul II who "was probably the most outspoken pope...on the importance of leisure". Each of the 10 reasons will be shared in our bulletin for the coming weeks.

8. Sometimes Leisure Requires Getting Away:

Jesus said to them,
"Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest
a while." (Mk 6:31)

9. Leisure is Meant to Be Light- Hearted:

Our leisure, even
our play, is a matter of serious concern....
[However,] to do them at all, we must somehow do them as if they were not. It is a serious matter to choose wholesome recreations: but they would no longer be recreations if we pursued them seriously. (C.S. Lewis)

10. Leisure Prepares Us for Heaven:

It might reasonably be maintained that the true object of all human life is play.
Earth is a task garden; heaven is a playground. (G.K. Chesterton)

So, relax. Play.
Enjoy some Holy Leisure time!
